1964 — A MAGIC SEASON

Memories of the 1964 season will remain for a very long time. Coach Jack Butterfield's Black Bears literally came out of nowhere to win a Yankee Conference championship, defeat a strong Northeastern team in the District One playoffs and advance to the NCAA College World Series. It was the first NCAA tournament appearance ever for a Black Bear nine. Led by a group of sophomores, Maine advanced to the final round with wins over national powers Southern Cal, defending national champion Arizona State, and Seton Hall before losing to Missouri. Pitcher Joe Ferris, undefeated in three NCAA games, was named CWS Most Valuable Player. Capt. David Thompson hit safely in every game and also was named to the all-CWS team.

Ferris had a 9-0 record for the season while Thompson and Dick DeVarney each hit .333 and Carl Merrill (who later became manager of the New York Yankees) batted .327. Coach Butterfield was named national Coach of the Year by the American College Baseball Coaches Association.

MAHANEY DIAMOND, CLUBHOUSE, AND DOME

Mahaney Diamond is the home of the baseball Black Bears. It is named for its chief benefactor, the late Larry K. Mahaney '51, whose extraordinary generosity over the years led to the creation of one of the best college facilities in the northeast, including a handsome club house with offices and locker rooms, grandstand, press box, and towering light towers that overlook the field. Mr. Mahaney coached briefly at his alma mater and subsequently at Brewer High School before entering the world of business. He became president and later chairman of the Board of the Webber Oil Company and founded the Erin Corporation which owns and manages Holiday Inns in several states, including Maine and Florida.

Mahaney Diamond measures 330 feet in left and right fields and 375 feet to dead center. The foul poles came from the Ballpark in Old Orchard Beach that at one time was home to a AAA minor league franchise. The outfield is surrounded by fencing and a cedar hedge. A large electronic scoreboard is adjacent to the left field fence.

The playing surface has undergone renovations over the years under the supervision of Joe Mooney, head groundskeeper of the Boston Red Sox.

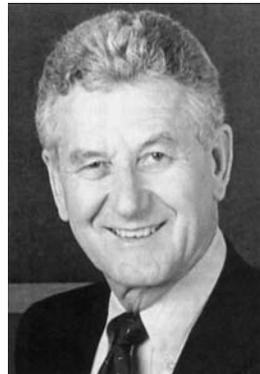

Recently the press box was enlarged and renovated thanks to a gift from Littlefield Construction of Hartland.

A feature of the Mahaney Clubhouse is the Palmer Lounge, courtesy of the late Bill Palmer. Located just behind third base, the Clubhouse has an outside deck overlooking the field.

Mahaney Diamond has hosted many intercollegiate tournaments, including a number of NCAA Regionals which had average daily attendances of over 4,000, several America East championship events, ECAC tournaments, Maine high school tournament games, and American Legion games.

The most recent gift from Larry and his son, Kevin, is the Mahaney Dome, located adjacent to the east wall of Memorial Gymnasium. With a state-of-the-art field turf donated by UM football great John Huard, the Dome provides winter practice space for the football, soccer, baseball, field hockey, and softball teams as well as a number of recreation programs. It was constructed in late 2006 and immediately became one of the Athletic Department's most popular facilities, in use virtually around the clock.

The structure stands 200 feet by 200 feet and is 55 feet high.

1980 — MAINE'S FOURTH NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Black Bears of 1980 became the fourth Maine team to qualify for the NCAA tournament after winning the ECAC title in the first season after the demise of the Yankee Conference. The team, an excited bunch as one can see, was honored by the "M" Club at a cookout before hosting the Regionals at Mahaney Diamond.

1986 — A SPECTACULAR SEASON

The 1986 Black Bears, led by Capt. David Gonyar and Bill Reynolds, became the first team in UM baseball history to win more than 40 games with a record of 41-23. The Bears won the ECAC championship, blazed through the NCAA regionals and advanced to the College World Series where they lost close games to Arizona and LSU. Bill Reynolds created a moment for the ages when he became the only player in UM history to hit four home runs in a single game. The occasion was a 21-8 win over St. John's that propelled Maine into the College World Series. He was named MVP at the regionals and made the all-CWS team. Steve Loubier, Jeff Plympton and Scott Morse each won eight games. Rick Bernardo led the team in hitting at .428 and belted 19 home runs. Front row, left to right: Dan Kane, Jay Kemble, Marc Powers, Dave Gonyar, Gary LaPierre, Mike Dutil, Marc Dube, and Don Hutchinson. Second row, left to right: Jim MacMichael, Mike LeBlanc, Rich Wilkins, Mike Bordick, Rick Bernardo, Jeff Plympton, Steve Loubier, Derek Aramburu, George Goldman, and Colin Ryan. Back row, left to right: Coach John Winkin, Asst. Coach Bob Whalen, Dan Etzweiler, Bill Reynolds, Scott Morse, Jim Overstreet, Dale Plummer, Jim Child, Mike Ballou, and Rob Roy.

1982 — ANOTHER SPECTACULAR SEASON

Maine's 1981 team created more tradition for UM baseball with a 35-13 record. The Bears were ECAC champions, won the NCAA Northeast Regionals and advanced to the College World Series where they posted wins over Stanford and Cal. State Fullerton before they were eliminated. Kevin Bernier became one of five Maine players ever to be named to the CWS all-star team. During the full season, Bill Swift was 10-1 on the mound, and Ed Pickett (.371), Ricky Lashua (.353), Kevin Bernier (.347) and Jeff Paul (.341) were leading hitters. Pickett, Swift, Brad Colton, Mark Sutton, and Joe Johnson were named first team, all-ECAC.

1959 — A GOOD YEAR

Jack Butterfield served as Maine's coach for 18 seasons, and 14 of them produced winning records. His 1959 team won 12 of 20 games and finished second in the Yankee Conference. Sophomore Ray Weed had a great year at the plate, batting .395 and Dick Colwell, who would post a 16-5 record over his three varsity seasons, won seven of 11 on the mound. Dean Deshon led the State Series in hitting with a .435 average. Front, Mgr. Bob Kelleter and Coach Jack Butterfield. First row, l-r, Sal Garro, Ken Perrone, Don Means, Capt. Dick Hlister, Peter Bastow, Bill Burke, and Bob Gaboury. Second row, l-r, Bob Webber, Dave Mosher, Phil Curtis, Charlie Chapman, and Anthony Soychak. Third row, l-r, Tom Valiton, John McCabe, Burt Payson, Leroy Keller, and Deane Deshon. Fourth row, l-r, Lloyd Bryant, Blaine Davis, Art Kilburn, Dick Colwell, and Ira Stockwell. Fifth row, l-r, Ray Weed and Jon Jacobs. Absent, Chuck Eberbach and Haddon Libby.

1949 MAINE NINE

Maine's 1949 nine struggled to come up with wins in a weather-shortened season, but the roster had many outstanding players who were outstanding in the summer leagues that dominated the Maine baseball landscape for several seasons after World War II. Ed Woodbrey was a terrific hitter, batting .390, and Marty Dow and Will Braley were outstanding pitchers. Front row, l-r, Paul Mitchell, Alex MacKenzie, Will Braley, Norm Parrott, Ernie Martikainen, and Mike Cherneski. Second row, l-r, Henry Emery, Lowell Osgood, Bill Walker, Leroy Dieffenbach, Phil Archibald, and Joe Nickless. Third row, l-r, Reggie Lord, Ed Woodbrey, Everett Beals, Joe Flaherty, Beryl Leach, and Norm Fournier. Fourth row, Asst. Coach Sam Sezak, Percy Coombs, Dan Hatch, Don Kennedy, Mgr. Roger Oakes, and Coach Bill Kenyon.

BEATING THE DEFENDING NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Perhaps the most exciting moment in Maine's baseball history came on a June night in Omaha, Nebraska, in 1964 when the Black Bears defeated Southern California, 2-1, in the NCAA College World Series. Catcher Carl Merrill embraces winning pitcher Joe Ferris in a sea of jubilant Black Bears after the final out was recorded.

1966 — END OF AN ERA

Maine's 1966 season marked the last time at bat for several of the heroes of the 1964 NCAA World Series team. Led by Tri-Capta. Dick DeVarney, Carl Merrill, and Joe Ferris, Jack Butterfield's Bears chalked up a 15-9-1 record. They tied with Connecticut for the Yankee Conference championship and with Colby for the Maine State Series title. Terry Ordway, Norm Tardiff and Carl Merrill were all-Maine. Merrill and Tardiff and Gordon Engstrom were named to the all-YC team. Front row, l-r, Paul Pendleton, Ron Lanza, John Gillette, Dick DeVarney, Joe Ferris, Carl Merrill, Steve Sones, Dick Kelliher, Bruce Cary, and Norm Tardiff. Second row, l-r, Mgr. Charlie Burnham, Dave Ames, Carl Fitzgerald, Dave Seabury, John Keegan, George Ferguson, Willie Corbett, George Platter, Terry Ordway, Darryl Calkins, Tom Farrell, Ralph Bonna and Gordon Engstrom. Absent, Dick Perkins and Art Heathcote.

1960 — A CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

Coach Jack Butterfield's 1960 team was a championship outfit, capturing both the State Series and Yankee Conference titles. Ray Weed, who led the Bears in hitting in all of his varsity seasons, and clutch hitter Ed Ranzoni batted .411 and .324 respectively. Dick Colwell was the ace of the mound with a 6-1 record. All three were named all-Maine and Weed and Colwell were first team, all-New England. We can assume that all three would have been named all-Yankee Conference, but YC coaches did not begin naming an all-conference team until the 1961 season. Front row, left to right: Jon Whitten, Phil Curtis, Co-Capts. Dick Colwell and Dean Deshon, Sal Garro, and LeRoy Keller. Second row, left to right: Tom Valiton, Ed Ranzoni, Peter Henderson, George Bartlett, Haddon Libby, Peter Forbush, Burt Payson, and Jonathan Jacobs. Back row, left to right: Bob Suomi, Lenny MacPhee, Bill Livesey, Bob Thompson, Ray Weed, Ron Marks, and Woody Dunphy.

1949 J.V. SQUAD

Sam Sezak put in many years as a coach of teams in several sports, including nine as coach of freshman and junior varsity baseball clubs. The spring of 1949 still found UM freshman living at the Brunswick Annex, so the sub-varsity team at Orono was a j.v. outfit made up of sophomores and juniors. They had a good season, winning five of seven games. Front row, l-r, Dan Ribbons, Jim Currie, Ernie Martikainen, Beryl Leach, Reg Hall, Hal Plummer, and Marvin Dow. Second row, l-r, Dan Hatch, Joe Flaherty, Lincoln Gordon, Leslie Botka, George Reed, and Coach Sam Sezak. Third row, l-r, Don Rawson, Larry Hersom, Dick Hewes, George Soucie, Halver Hart, and Francis Lynch. Fourth row, l-r, Mgr. Phil Witherall, Oliver Holden, Paul Beaudry, Aston Durham, and Mgr. Bernard Johnson.

1976 — MAINE'S SECOND WORLD SERIES TEAM

Coach John Winkin's 1976 lineup may have included the strongest pitching staff of any UM team in history. Barry LaCasse posted a 7-1 record, Bert Roberge was 9-2 and Steve Conley was 7-2. With that dynamic trio leading the way, Maine posted a 29-9 record, including winning the ECAC championship, sweeping the NCAA Northeast Regionals, and advancing to the College World Series where they defeated Washington State and Auburn to advance to the semi-final round before losing to Arizona. Leading hitters were Tony DiBiase (.339), John Dumont (.311), and Jack Leggett (.307). Shortstop Russ Quetti was named to the all-CWS team. DiBiase and Leggett were all-Yankee Conference and Ed Flaherty, Dumont, and Leggett were all-ECAC. L-r, Trainer Wes Jordan, Asst. Coach Carl Merrill, Steve Conley, Doug Carville, Billy Hughes, Gary Smart, Fred Fasulo, Barry LaCasse, Bruce Justice, Wayne Fiegenbaum, Co-Capt. Jack Leggett, Dana Dresser, Tony DiBiase, Phil Skillings, Mike Curry, Bert Roberge, Mark Armstrong, Ed Flaherty, Co-Capt. John Dumont, Russ Quetti, Peter LaFlamme, Brian Butterfield, John Sawyer, and Coach John Winkin.

1941 MAINE SQUAD

Members of the 1941 team, in later years, would be called members of the "Greatest Generation." Within a year or two, virtually every player would be wearing a different uniform and three, Charlie Taylor, Don Kilpatrick, and Albert Edelstein, would die fighting for their country. The '41 squad had many fine players, including four .300-plus hitters, Nat Crowley (.328), Cliff Blake (.317), Philmore Meserve (.313), and Laurence Downes (.305), and pitcher Gordon Tooley won posted a 4-2 mound record. Front row, l-r, Mgr. Brooks Brown, Jr., Charlie Taylor, Laurence Downes, Cliff Blake, Capt. Harvard Whitten, Nat Crowley, Don Kilpatrick, Gordon Tooley, Alfred Mann, Ed Hamblen, and Coach Bill Kenyon. Second row, l-r, Al Edelstein, Tom Pollock, Parker Small, Philmore Meserve, Angus Humphries, John Bower, and George Murray. Absent: Gordon Winters, Al Adams, Faulkner Chase, Ed Dangler, and Jim Talbot.

1981 — A HISTORIC SEASON

Coach John Winkin's 1981 team became the first squad in UM history to win more than 30 games, finishing with a 32-14 record. One of the best teams in UM history, the Bears were ECAC champions, won the NCAA Northeast Regional and went to the College World Series. Kevin Buckley and Joe Johnson were co-MVPs of the regionals and Peter Adams and Tom Vanidestine joined them on the all ECAC team. Brad Coulton (.438), Buckley (.431) and Vanidestine (.355) were a fearsome trio for opposing pitchers. Stu Lacognata and Johnson were immense on the mound, posting 9-2 and 8-1 records, respectively. Front row, l-r, Brad Coulton, Mark Sutton, Ed Pickett, Jon Perry, Jim Foley, Co-Capts. Mike Coutts and Kevin Buckley, Don DeWolfe, John Tortorella, Peter Adams, Kevin Bernier, and Tom Vanidestine. Back row, l-r, Dick Whitten, Asst. Coaches Brian Cox and Doug Carville, Joe Johnson, Bill Swift, Tom Mahan, Brian Plourde, Rick Lashua, Stu Lacognata, Bill Moszke, Bob Colford, John Balerna, Peter Bushway, Ed Hackett, Jeff Paul, Fred Staples, and Coach John Winkin.

1954 — A STRONG RECORD

Veteran followers of UM athletics will have no trouble recognizing many members of the 1954 team, a successful squad that posted a 14-9 record and won the Maine State Series title under Coach Tubby Raymond. Charlie Otterstedt compiled one of the best pitching records in history with a 7-1 mark. Dawson List (.370) and Dave Wiggin (.327) led the Bears at the plate. Row, l-r, Steve Novick, Tom Pike, Gerry Wright, Gus Folsom, Francis Soychak, Angie LoCicero, Joe Di Giovanni, Jim Woodbrey, and Chandler Coddington. Second row, l-r, Charlie Otterstedt, Clyde Pierpont, Dave Wiggin, Coach Tubby Raymond, Mal Speirs, and Don Arnold. Back row, l-r, Kevin Cadieux, Dawson List, Don Beattie, Harry Stearns, John Dana, Perley Dean, Blaine Trafton, Gene Scribner, Tom Reynolds, and Wally Covell.

1908 MAINE SQUAD

The first of many Maine players to go on to the major leagues was a sophomore pitcher on the 1908 squad, Marty McHale. After graduation, he pitched for the Red Sox in the 1910 and 1911 seasons, was in the minors in 1912, pitched for the Yankees between 1913 and 1916 as well as for the Red Sox again and the Indians in the 1916 season. The 1908 Maine team was coached by William Fitzmaurice, posting an 8-8 record after winning only one game the previous season. The 1908 season proved to be quite a challenge. Alumni Field was under construction, there was no fieldhouse at the time, and the team played its first game without a single outside practice. Highlights were wins over Vermont, Boston College and a nationally-prominent Harvard squad. Capt. Norman Mayo, between 1937 and 1939, served as president of the Graduate "M" Club. Front row, l-r, Frank Richardson, Frank Cobb, Marty McHale, and George Stanwood. Second row, l-r, David Coombs, Capt. Norman Mayo, Ellwyn Fulton, and Ralph Pond. Third row, l-r, Coach William Fitzmaurice, Harrison Higgins, Russell Smith, Philip Ryan, Dan Chase, Albert Libby, and Mgr. Lewis Pike.

1950 — YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Mike Lude, who coached Maine's baseball teams in 1950 and 1951, predicted good things for his 1950 team and knew he was right later on when the Bears posted a 12-9 record and captured Maine's first Yankee Conference title. Carl Wight (.338), Joe Nickless (.321) and George Gray (.321) were top hitters and Vic Woodbrey and Marty Dow won six and four games, respectively, on the hill. Front row, l-r, Nundi Romano, Lowell Osgood, Ralph Clark, Ernie Martikainen, Capt. George Gray, Merrill Wilson, Joe Nickless, Clyde Douglass, and Pat Davidson. Standing, l-r, Coach Mike Lude, Jim DeLois, Bob Breton, Rollie Chamard, Jack Whitmore, Marty Dow, Vic Woodbrey, Jim Bradley, Carlton Wight, and Mgr. Dave Allen.

NCAA REGIONALS AT MAHANEY DIAMOND

Between four and five thousand fans were on hand daily during the several NCAA regional tournaments held at Mahaney Diamond during the 1980s. This shot was taken at the 1980 regional.

A FEARSOME TRIO

Dave Wiggin (left), Al Hackett and John McGuire represented quite a challenge for opposing pitchers in 1952. The trio led the Black Bears to a second place finish in the Yankee Conference.

1914 BLACK BEARS

Believe it or not, Maine's baseball program was in its 33RD season when this group of determined players represented the University in the spring of 1914. The team was led by pitcher Michael Driscoll, who posted a 4-1 record, and sophomore second baseman Otis Lawry who was Maine's leading hitter that season, as well as in 1915 and 1916. Front row, left to right: Arthur Abbott, Otis Lawry, Capt. Madison Gilman, Rhonello Hackett, and Michael Driscoll. Second row, left to right: Charles Chase, Tom Mangan, Ray Pendleton, David Baker, Clyde Fox, and Harold Cobb. Back row, left to right: Coach Joe Phelan, Gerry Welch, and Mgr. Earl Goodwin.

N.C.A.A. TOURNAMENT

BLACK BEAR AWARD RECIPIENTS

Three gentlemen with long-standing ties to the University's athletic program were recipients of Black Bear Awards from the University Alumni Association in 1980. The awards, usually three in number, are presented annually to individuals who have demonstrated, over a period of many years, devotion to the aims of the University, possessing high ideals in their personal lives, and service in general to the University and the Alumni Association. Receiving their awards during the annual alumni reunion weekend festivities were, l-r, George Hale, who broadcast Maine's games in baseball, basketball and football for more than four decades; Bill Palmer '58, generous contributor to several University programs and for whom the Palmer Lounge overlooking Mahaney Diamond is named; and Bert Pratt '43, long-time associate director of admissions and an outstanding athlete in tennis and basketball as an undergraduate.

1960 FROSH PASTIMERS

Ken Perrone, one of the University's top athletes in the late 1950s, was given his first coaching job in the spring of 1960 as coach of the freshman squad. It was his only season at the helm, but not his last as a coach as he went on to become of the most highly-regarded high school football coaches in Massachusetts as well as at Salem State over a period of more than three decades. Members of the '60 frosh unit were, front row, left to right: Normand Chabot, Hugh Drisko, Dave Estabrook, Ted Rose, Ray Caldwell, Barry Hadlock, Bob Couture, and Mgr. Roland Wasgatt. Second row, left to right: Mgr. Peter Edgecomb, John Gibbons, David Haskell, Laddie Deemer, Charles Murphy, Wayne Astbury, Cal Gammon, Brian O'Connor, Art Warren, and Coach Ken Perrone. Back row, l-r, Mgr. Bill Winslow, Bill Thomas, Dave Thompson, Connie Nisbet, Alton "Bump" Hadley, and Mgr. Ralph Harris.

SEASON-BY-SEASON PITCHING LEADERS

Included are pitchers with three or more decisions (two or more in seasons in which statistics are incomplete) and with a winning percentage of .400 or better, or with an earned run average of 4.00 or lower with a minimum of 18 innings pitched. If, in a given season, no pitcher met these criteria, the pitcher with the best win-loss record is shown. Statistics available since 1894.

Abbreviations: IP, innings pitched; W-L, wins and losses; BB/SO, bases on balls allowed and strikeouts; ERA, earned run average.

1946 MAINE NINE

The winter that preceded Maine's spring in 1946 lingered much too long, limiting the Black Bears to 11 games, but it still felt good for the many World War II veterans on the club to be back on the green grass in Orono. Ted Boynton, Joe Coombs and Gerry Poulin all batted over .300 and Capt. Al McNeilly (a strong University benefactor over the years) was the mainstay of the pitching staff. Front row, l-r, Sherwood Gordon, George O'Donnell, Joe Flaherty, Bob Anderson, Ted Boynton, Will Braley, Harry Angelides, and Gerry Poulin. Second row, l-r, Coach Bill Kenyon, Bill Bonville, Nicholas Cutrules, George Perry, Ron Berry, Royal Matthews, Joe Coombs, Ralph Hazelton, Mike Cherneski, Capt. Al McNeilly, Leland DeRocher, and Asst. Coach Sam Sezak. Back row, l-r, Stan Tyler, Marty Dow, Bill Creighton, Danny Frazier, Fred Sherman, Walt Borkowski, Frank Haines, Don Peterson, Harry Hawkes, Walt Benzie, and Bob Johnston. Absent, Mgrs. Paul Dowe and Roger Pendleton, and Bill Walker.

1881 — THE FIRST TEAM

The 1881 baseball team was the first officially-sponsored UM team in any sport. As you can see, there were only nine members, so playing time certainly wasn't a problem. Unfortunately, we do not have name identifications. There was no coach; team members organized practices, coached themselves, and drew up the schedule of games. Six contests were played; three against a group of Bangor area players under the name of the Bangor Athletic Association; two vs. Colby and a single game vs. Bates. The team won its three games against the Bangor A.A. but dropped the games against the college nines. You will notice the letters M.S.C. on each uniform; that stood for Maine State College as the University was known in those days.

AMERICA EAST

Baseball became an American East Conference sport in 1990. Charter members were Cent. Connecticut and Northeastern Universities and the Universities of Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont. CCU. resigned after one season. Boston U. joined in 1991 but discontinued baseball after the 1995 season. Drexel U. and the U. of Delaware became members in 1992, followed by Hofstra U. in 1995 and Towson U. in 1996. The U. of New Hampshire dropped baseball following the 1997 season. The U. of Delaware and Drexel, Hofstra, and Towson Universities resigned following the 2001 season. The Universities of Albany, Binghamton, and Stony Brook joined in 200 and the U. of Maryland at Baltimore County in 2004. Northeastern U. resigned following the 2005 season. Final regular season and tournament standings are listed below. Tournament play began in 1994.

BUTTERFIELD SCHOLARSHIP

Jack Butterfield was returning home from a meeting of New York Yankee executives on the night of Nov. 16, 1979, when he died suddenly in a highway accident in New Jersey. His good friend, Wes Jordan, immediately began raising funds to establish the Jack Butterfield Memorial Scholarship administered by the University of Maine Foundation. This photo shows Athletic Director Harold Westerman and Jack's widow, Patty Butterfield, presenting Bill Swift with the first scholarship authorized under the program. Contributions to the fund continue to be received some 27 years after Jack's death and income generated by the fund benefits one player annually.

1969 — A GOOD SEASON

Coach Jack Butterfield's Black Bears of 1969 struggled on their southern trip, but rebounded well during the New England season to tie for second place with Connecticut in the Yankee Conference, as well as share the crown in the State Series. Jim Cameron, Bruce Stafford and Bill West all earned first team, all-Yankee Conference honors. Overall, the team posted a 12-12 record. Front row, l-r, Bill West, Bob Curry, Darrell Whittemore, Ron Hicks, Charlie Walker, Capt. Bruce Stafford, Charles Gallant, Joe O'Connell, Jim Cameron, Steve Morin, and Wayne Kuvaja. Back row, l-r, Mike Ordway, Joe Sontag, Tom Tucker, Lee Pollack, Tolm Smith, Dennis Kiah, Chris Murphy, Jim Chaplin, John Stubbs, Ken Addition, Rod Choroszy, and Dave Ames.

EASTERN COLLEGE ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

In 1976, the ECAC was selected to receive the "automatic qualifier" for the NCAA Division I Tournament. Standings were established for Division I teams in each ECAC geographical region, including New England. The standings did not include mandated round robin scheduling, however, but were based on all games played between ECAC Division I teams throughout the northeast. A post-season tournament was established for the New England Division with the champion moving on to the NCAA Tournament. This arrangement was in effect for six seasons between 1976 and 1981. In-season win-loss records of ECAC New England members vs. other ECAC Division I teams during the six-year period were as follows:

	1976	1977	1978	1979	1980	1981

E.C.A.C. NORTH

Effective with the 1982 season and continuing until 1989, ECAC Division I members were divided into five geographical regions with round-robin scheduling mandated within each region. Maine was placed in the ECAC North. Membership varied from season to season, usually downward as institutions resigned to join newly-organized Division I conferences. Standings between 1982 and 1989 are listed below.

1988 — A FINE SEASON

The 1988 season saw the Black Bears win 33 games, but came up short in the ECAC tournament after finishing first during the regular season. There were many highlights, however. More than 15,000 fans came to watch the Bears host Miami in a four-game home series which included one win over the nation's #1 ranked team. Mark Sweeney had a great season, hitting .387 with a .644 slugging percentage and was joined on the all-ECAC team by Mike DeLucia, Dale Plummer and Colin Ryan. MAINE STATE SERIES

For 75 seasons Maine teams competed annually for the championship of the Maine Intercollegiate Athletic Association, better known as the Maine State Series. Members were Bates, Bowdoin, and Colby Colleges and the University of Maine. Scheduling was conducted on a random basis during the latter stages of the 1800s before becoming formalized in 1897. League play was cancelled between 1943 and 1945. The conference dissolved following the 1974 season. There was no post-season tournament. Annual conference standings are listed below.

WHEN THE BEARS PLAYED THE GIANTS

Maine's 1902 team wanted to play the best on its spring team, so it scheduled a game with the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds! The Bears lost, 7-2, but led 1-0 after five as freshman Lester Mitchell held the major leaguers scoreless, but six Maine errors in the last four innings led to the loss. Fred Holmes, who became a professor at the U. of Iowa for more three decades, and Henry Chadbourne led Maine with two singles each. Mitchell was head of the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation in later years.

All-State Series Selections

Selection of an all-conference team by the league's four State Series coaches seemingly was not done on a consistent basis over the years. Selections, when made, were based primarily on performances in State Series games only. An exhaustive search of news clippings and other materials indicated that the first all-conference team was chosen in 1934, but none was selected or reported between 1935 and 1939, 1941 and 1942, 1968 and 1969, and 1973 and 1974. Your editor will welcome any offerings from interested parties that would fill in any of the missing years. Names of Maine players chosen in seasons when an all-conference team could be documented are as follows:

Ken Additon (1970)	George Ferguson (1967)	Charlie Otterstedt (1954)

MAINE'S MAJOR LEAGUE COACH

Which UM baseball coach played 14 seasons in the big leagues? Jack Butterfield? John Winkin? Fred Brice? Bill Kenyon? No, none of those coaching legends. The answer is Monte Cross, who led Maine teams for six seasons between 1915 and 1921. He spent most of his career with the Philadelphia Athletics but also with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Baltimore Orioles and St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. His best season was in a St. Louis uniform when he hit .286, including 17 doubles, 11 triples and four home runs. He had retired from major league baseball before he was hired at Maine.

YANKEE CONFERENCE

The Yankee Conference, consisting of the Universities of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont, began baseball play in 1949. The conference disbanded after the 1979 season. Holy Cross College and Boston University were members in one season only, 1972. Vermont dropped baseball following the 1972 season but reinstated the sport in 1979. There was no post-season tournament. Standings in each of the 31 seasons of league play are listed below.
