Although the first formal men's basketball team represented the University in the 1904-05 season, some 103 years ago, the 2006-07 season was the 87TH year of the sport at Maine. The reason: the program was discontinued twice, once between 1910 and 1920, an absence of 10 seasons, and again between 1929 and 1935, an absence of six additional seasons. Reasons for the interruptions varied, ranging from finances to a lack of local opponents (Maine was the only college in the state to have a team in the mid-1920s), to facility problems. The program was "re-born" for good in 1935, although only a single game was played in the '35-'36 season. It is worth noting that Bill Kenyon, a veteran coach of other UM teams, volunteered to coach the team without compensation in order to get the program reinstated. He continued to do so for six more years even though his salary did not reflect his additional duties! It is also interesting to note that while a varsity basketball program was absent for 16 seasons, the University sponsored a freshman team during those years, primarily due to the availability of local opponents in the form of high schools and prep schools where basketball was gaining a strong degree of interest.

MAINE'S MOST HONORED TEAM

Every game in Maine's 1959-60 season was a sellout as the Black Bears won 83 percent (19-4) of their games, setting a record that still stands today. Their performance included 13 straight wins. Sports Illustrated magazine carried a feature article on the Bears, a prized keepsake still found in the homes of several team members. The Bears won the state title with a 9-0 record and finished second in the Yankee Conference. Sophomore Skip Chappelle won the first of three consecutive YC scoring titles and earned the first of his three first team, all-YC all awards. Larry Schiner, Don Sturgeon and Jon Ingalls were a dominating rebounding unit, averaging 30 rebounds per game. A unique team feature is that at least seven players went on to become a head coach in college: Skip Chappelle (Maine), Len MacPhee (U-Maine Farmington), Bill Livesey (Maine), Don Harnum (Delaware), Leroy Chipman (Pittsburgh), Dick Sturgeon (Southern Maine), and Larry Schiner (Jersey City State). Wayne Champeon and Don Sturgeon became highly-successful Maine high school coaches.

1925-26 BLACK BEARS

Maine was the only collegiate institution to field a men's basketball team in the State of Maine in the winter of 1925-26. Coached by legendary UM football coach Fred Brice, the Bears played most of their games away from home, winning five out of 12 games including a victory over Dartmouth. Veteran Maine basketball fans may recognize the name of the third man from the right in the second row. He is Bill Hanscom, who for a great many years after graduation was one of the state's most successful high school coaches at Presque Isle HS. Front row, l-r, Vernon Bryant, Capt. Malcolm Lake, and Albert Olsson. Second row, l-r, Archie Kamen, Jim Branscombe, Bill Hanscom, and John Durrell. Back row, l-r, Coach Fred Brice, Henry Beatty, and Mgr. Alfred Hammer.

1954-55 MAINE CAGERS

Maine's 1854-55 lineup included a number of outstanding multi-sport athletes, including Thurlow Cooper, Pete Kosty, John Dana, Don Arnold, Blaine Trafton, Gus Folsom and two of the University's leading benefactors, Asst. Coach Larry Mahaney and Michael Latti. Front row, l-r, Mike Latti, Don Arnold, Blaine Trafton, Gus Folsom, and Bert Daniels. Second row, l-r, Asst. Coach Larry Mahaney, Charles Cameron, Sterling Huston, Thurlow Cooper, Frank Smith, Alphege Martin, and Coach Russ DeVette. Back row, l-r, Richie Alin, Bobby Jones, Pete Kosty, and Mgr. John Stroud. Absent: John Dana and Mike Polese.

1957-58 — A GREAT FINISH

Hal Woodbury, one of the University's most outstanding athletes in the mid-1930s and a much admired staff member over his long career at Maine, served as head coach of men's basketball between 1955 and 1958. His last team posted an 8-12 record, but was one of New England's best teams over the last part of the season as they won five straight, including beating both Rhode Island and Massachusetts for the second time during the campaign. Co-Captains Tom Seavey, Dudley Coyne and Maurie Dore each had double figure scoring averages as the Bears finished in a third-place tie in the Yankee Conference. Seated, l-r, Terry Spurling, Maurie Dore, Co-Capt. Tom Seavey and Dudley Coyne, Dick Collins (one of Maine's leading benefactors over the years), and Dick Sturgeon. Back row, l-r, Ray Vachon, Bob Hume, Al Adams, Curt Rose, Willy Martin, and Coach Hal Woodbury.

2003-04 BLACK BEARS

The 2003–04 season was another successful campaign under Coach John Giannini as the Black Bears won 20 games and advanced to the championship game of the America East Conference. It also was the final season for Giannini in Orono. His teams posted a 125-111 record over eight seasons, winning an average of just under 16 games per year. Left to right, Asst. Coach Ted Woodward, Ernest Turner, Chris Markwood, Joe Campbell, Derrick Jackson, David Dubois, Olli Ahvenniemi, Tri-Capt. Jon Wallingford and Ludmil Hadjisotirov, Mark Flavin, Freddy Petkus, Tri-Capt. Eric Dobson, Chris Bruff, Kevin Reed, Asst. Coach Calvin Oldham, and Coach John Giannini.

STANDING ROOM ONLY

Bob Warner (52) waits for a possible rebound as Bob Zak puts one up against Boston University in this 1974 game against Boston U. before a packed house in Memorial Gymnasium. Warner established UM records for most rebounds in one game, one season, and three seasons during his seasons in Orono and all remain the best in UM basketball history. Warner was a unanimous All-Yankee Conference and all-New England selection and truly one of finest players in UM history.

1956-57 BLACK BEARS

Keith Mahaney (front, left) was a prolific scorer during his abbreviated varsity basketball career at Maine. He averaged 22.6 points per game (452 in 20 games) in the '56-'57 season and 18.6 for his career which places him fourth on the all-time UM scoring list in terms of points per game average. Unfortunately, due to Army service, Keith played only two and one-half seasons of varsity basketball, but his numbers were still impressive . . . 893 points in 48 games. He twice had 39 points in a game and at one time owned many UM and State Series scoring records. Front row, l-r, Keith Mahaney, Tom Seavey, Franklin Smith, Dick Libby, Co-Captains. Pete Kostacopoulos and Bobby Jones, Thurlow Cooper, and Dudley Coyne. Back row, l-r, Coach Hal Woodbury, Mgr. Wendell Leadbetter, Dick Collins, Richard Smith, Bill Bragdon, Ron Boynton, Dave Rand, Asst. Coach Jack Butterfield, and Trainer Stan Wallace.

1998-99 — A VERY GOOD SEASON

Coach John Giannini's 1998-99 Maine team had a fine season, posting a 19-9 record which included a win over Big Ten opponent Northwestern. It was the first time a Maine five reached the 19-win plateau since the 1959-60 season. Front row, l-r, Jeremy Thombs, Fitzgerald "Dade" Faison, Fred Meeks, Corey Thibodeau, Marcus Wills, Tom Waterman, and Co-Capt. Andy Bedard. Back row, l-r, Asst. Coaches Ted Woodward and Ed Jones, Clinton "Huggy" Dye, Todd Tibbetts, Colin Haynes, Julian Dunkley, Nate Fox, Linnell Marshall, Jamar Croon, Co-Capt. Allen Ledbetter, Coach John Giannini, and Asst. Coach Mike Mennenga.

1983-84 — A SEASON TO REMEMBER

Maine had a fine season in the winter of 1983-84, posting a 17-10 record and finishing third in the ECAC Division One tournament. The Black Bears were led by Jeff Cross, who averaged 16.8 points and 12.6 rebounds per game, one of the best individual seasonal performances in UM history. Jeff Sturgeon, Jeff Wheeler, and Jeff Topliff all had double figure scoring averages. Front, Jim Boylan (left) and Kevin Green.

DICK COLLINS

Dick Collins '59, captain of Maine's 1958-59 team, and his wife, Ann '61, have been most generous benefactors for the University over the years. Their contributions have included rooms and facilities in the Buchanan Alumni House, the Center for the Arts, Memorial Gymnasium, and Alfond Stadium. They financed a new floor in Memorial Gymnasium, a men's basketball locker room, suites in the stadium, and recently made a significant gift to the University's capital gift campaign which hopefully will result in a remodeling and expansion of Memorial Gymnasium.

LEADERSHIP – A FAMILY AFFAIR

An interesting aspect of the group of men who have been elected captains of men's basketball over the years is the number of leaders from the same families. They include brothers Peter and Steve Gavett; brothers Dick and Don Sturgeon, as well as Don's son, Jeff; and Hal Woodbury and his son, Robert.

Coaches and players have been known to complain about the length of road trips over the years, but how about the journey endured by the 1922-23 Maine team? The Black Bears played eight games in almost as many nights, facing Colgate, Syracuse, Hamilton and Rochester in upstate New York, followed by four games in Ohio vs. the Goodyear Club, Baldwin-Wallace, Wittenburg, and Cincinnati. Unbelievable!

1968-69 BLACK BEARS

Gilbert "Gib" Philbrick, one of the most popular figures in UM athletic history, served as head coach of the Black Bears for three seasons between 1968 and 1971. His 1968-69 team posted a 10-13 record, but included a 28-point win over Connecticut in mid-season and later won back-to-back road games over Rhode Island and Connecticut, the first such accomplishment in UM hoop history. Jim Stephenson, a first-team, all-Yankee Conference selection, set a new UM record by averaging 23.8 points per game, a mark bettered only over the years by Rufus Harris. Hugh Campbell, Marshall Todd and Dennis Stanley combined to average 41 points per game and Campbell set a new UM mark in rebounding with an average of 12.7 per game. Front row, l-r, Asst. Coach Skip Chappelle, Jim Stephenson, Hugh Campbell, and Coach Gib Philbrick. Standing, l-r, Mgr. Chet Hubbard, Carroll Lee, Laurent Rioux, Russ Vickery, Bob Chandler, Mike Wolford, Dennis Stanley, Ernie Dobbs, Dick Blake, Marshall Todd, Mike Hanson, Mike McGuire, and Trainer Wes Jordan.

1961-62 BLACK BEARS

Skip Chappelle's teammates honored him in his final season by electing him to serve as team captain. It was a fitting climax to an extraordinary career. He became the first player to average more than 20 points per game in two seasons and held the career scoring record when he graduated. He averaged 20.5 points per game in his varsity career, a mark bettered only in later years by Jim Stephenson (22.7) and Rufus Harris (21.4). He was the first basketball player to be elected to the UM Hall of Fame. He was the only player in the 30-year history of the Yankee Conference to lead the league in scoring average three times and is the only UM player to be named first team, all-YC three times. Members of the 1961-62 team were, front, l-r, Dennis Vanidestine, Ted Leadbetter, Alan Leathers, Capt. Skip Chappelle, Len MacPhee, Laddie Deemer, and Joel Densmore. Back row, l-r, Don Harnum, John McGonagle, Bob Robertson, Bob Stickney, Gary Johnston, Art Warren, Jack Brown, and Coach Brian McCall.

2006-07 BLACK BEARS

Coach Ted Woodward began his third season as head coach of Maine basketball with a lineup composed of several top players from Maine high school ranks. The non-conference schedule included at least three nationally-ranked teams, Providence, Nevada, and Penn State. Seated, l-r, Tyson Hartnett, Jesse Keith, Jason Hight, Co-Capt. Kevin Reed, Jon Sheets, Junior Bernal, and Chris Bruff. Standing, l-r, Asst. Coaches Doug Leichner and Mike Burden, Equip. Mgr. Kelly Clifford, Mark Socoby, Christian Cavanaugh, Brian Andre, Co-Capt. Olli Ahvenniemi, Jordan Cook, Philippe Tchekane-Bofia, Sean Costigan, Trainer Paula Linder, Asst. Coach Chris Markwood, and Coach Ted Woodward.

1975-76 — A FINE SEASON

Bob Warner closed his great career at Maine by leading the Bears to a 14-11 record. One of the top rebounders in New England intercollegiate history, he totaled 1,304 in three varsity seasons, still a UM record. Paul Wholey averaged 22.1 points per game and was named first team, all-YC. The Bears had plenty of other scoring punch, with Warner averaging 16.9 per game, Roger Lapham at 12.3 and Dan Reilly at 10.1. Highlights of the season were pulsating wins over Rhode Island, 73-71, and Connecticut, 64-63. Kneeling, l-r, Asst. Coach Peter Gavett, Capt. Bob Warner, and Coach Skip Chappelle. Standing, l-r, Grad. Asst. Coach Mike Berticelli, Paul Wholey, Brian Butterfield, Steve Fitzpatrick, Scott Higgins, Kevin Nelson, Steve Gavett, Roger Lapham, Lew Waugh, Kevin Kulhawy, Dan Reilly, Wally Russell, and Trainer Phil Mateja.

1972-73 BLACK BEARS

The '72-'73 season was another winning campaign for Maine as the Bears chalked up a 13-10 record. Capt. Peter Gavett and Bob Warner were named first team, all-Yankee Conference. It was the first (and only) season in which two Maine players achieved that honor. The dynamic pair averaged 41 points and 24 rebounds per game. In one of the most exciting games in UM history, the Bears defeated a powerful Connecticut five, 110-105. Team members were, front, Capt. Peter Gavett; kneeling, l-r, Dave Anderson, Frank Annunziata, and Bob Warner. Standing, l-r, Tony Hamlin, Tom Danforth, John Morrison, Tom Burns, Steve Conley, and Mike Poplawski.

1980-81 MAINE CAGERS

Maine's 1980-81 team was a competitive unit, winning 14 games and qualifying for the ECAC Division I tournament. The Bears played a most demanding schedule, including non-league away games against Texas A & M, Connecticut, Temple, Kentucky, and DePaul. Team members were, bottom row, l-r, Gary Speed and Craig Kelsey. Second row, l-r, Co-Capt. Dave Wyman, Kevin Green, Jeff Cross, Jeff Sturgeon, and Paul Cook. Third row, l-r, Champ Godbolt and Mitch Anderson. Fourth row, l-r, Clay Gunn and Rick Carlisle; and seated at top, Co-Capt. Jim Mercer.

1960-61 — END OF AN ERA

It was the most successful four-year period in UM basketball history. Between 1957 and 1961, four players, Wayne Champeon, Don Sturgeon, John Ingalls, and Wayne Champeon, were members of teams which won 66 out of 82 games. The 1960-61 season marked their final year in a Maine uniform with the Bears posting an 18-5 record. In Memorial Gymnasium, they lost only three games in four seasons. Skip Chappelle led the team in scoring, averaging 21.1 points per game with Schiner at 19.0, Sturgeon at 13.1 and Champeon at 10.1. Highlights included beating Rhode Island, 69-65, to win the Downeast Classic before more than 6,000 at the Bangor Auditorium, a 19-point win over Connecticut, and 78-75 and 103-65 wins over Massachusetts. Front row, l-r, Lenny MacPhee, Ted Leadbetter, Dave Pound, Skip Chappelle, Capt. Don Sturgeon, Laddie Deemer, Wayne Champeon, and Mgrs. Phil Campbell and Greg Shapiro. Standing, l-r, Coach Brian McCall, Larry Schiner, Bob Robertson, Gary Johnstone, Bob Chapman, John Ingalls, Mike Burham, Art Warren, and Don Harnum.

UNDEFEATED 1946-47 ANNEX TEAM

It wouldn't be right to publish this book without at least one photo of a team that was based at the Brunswick Annex. Virtually all UM first-year male students were housed at Brunswick between 1946 and 1949 due to a shortage of housing at the Orono campus. The first of three basketball teams at Brunswick had an excellent season, winning all 15 of its games under the coaching of Joe Zabilski and Asst. Coach Bob Raymond. Posing for the team photo were, front row, l-r, Mgr. Wendell Thrush, Jim McCormick, Lowell Osgood, Capt. Jim Taylor, Alex Somerville, Jerome Begert, John Connolly, Jim O'Toole, Al Hopkins, and Mgr. Dana McCrum. Standing, l-r, Coach Joe Zabilski, Mgr. Bob Saltzman, John Anderson, Bob Redman, Bert Goddard, Hank Peasley, Paul Zdanowicz, Bill Feeney, and Asst. Coach Bob Raymond.

YEAR-BY-YEAR SCORING LEADERS

Listed are players who averaged 10 (rounded up from 9.5) or more points per game and/or the top two scorers for each season and who appeared in 50 percent or more of games played by the team. Box scores could not be located for seasons prior to the 1925-26 season and for the 1927-28 and 1928-29 seasons. Abbreviations: G, games played; FG/2, two-point field goals; FG/3, three-point field goals; FT, free throws; TP, total points scored; Ave., average points per game.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Members of men's basketball teams will recognize the familiar face at the table in Chris Dunphy, secretary to the coaches for quite a number of years. This photo, taken in 1981, shows Chris with her student helpers, Lonna Plummer, Dianne Gould, and Joan Morovick (l-r).

1971-72 — AN OUTSTANDING SEASON

Coach Skip Chappelle's 1971-72 team was one of best teams in many years, winning 15 of 25 games, capturing the Maine State Series title and finishing second in the Yankee Conference. It was the most wins by a Maine team in 11 seasons. Memorable games were victories over Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut. Peter Gavett led the YC in scoring with 19.6 points per game. He and Nick Susi combined to average nearly 19 rebounds per game. Seated, l-r, Rick Hillman, Jack Morrison, Tony Hamlin, Capt. Paul Bessey, Steve Lane, Willie Gavett, and Mark Johnson. Standing, l-r, Coach Skip Chappelle, Asst. Coach Leon Harriman, Jim Bray, John Sterling, Nick Susi, Peter Gavett, Bruce Stinson, Mgr. Steve Pelletier and Asst. Mgr. Ed Roberts.

1938-39 MAINE FIVE

Maine had a strong season in the winter of 1938-39, posting an 8-4 record and going undefeated in Maine State Series play. The Black Bears finished third in the New England Conference. Capt. Louis Bourgoin and Charlie Wilson were named to the State Series all-conference team. The season was one of eight at the Maine helm for Coach Bill Kenyon, although he was forced to give up his duties midway through the season due to a serious illness. Asst. Coach Hal Woodbury guided the team for the balance of the campaign. Front row, l-r, Charlie Arbor, Phil Craig, Phil Curtis, Capt. Louis Bourgoin, Ed Stanley, Dana Drew, Charlie Wilson, and Sam Tracy. Second row, l-r, Faculty Manager of Athletics Ted Curtis, Coach Bill Kenyon, Roger Stearns, Mal Roberts, Phil Soderquist, Hugh Mackay, Elwood Millett, Bruce MacKay, Jerome Steeves, Asst. Coach Hal Woodbury, and Mgr. George Digby. Back row, l-r, Jim Harmon, Bill Ward, Fred Johnston, and Harv Whitten.

AMERICA EAST

Established in 1979 as the Eastern College Athletic Conference North, the league retained that title until 1987 when it was re-named the North Atlantic Conference. It was re-titled America East in the mid-1990s. Charter members were Boston, Colgate, Niagara, and Northeastern Universities, Canisius and Holy Cross Colleges, and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

The U. of Rhode Island resigned in 1980. Siena College joined in 1984. Holy Cross College resigned in 1984. The U. of Hartford joined in 1985. Canisius and Siena Colleges and Niagara U. resigned in 1989. Colgate U. resigned in 1990. The U. of Delaware and Drexel U. joined in 1991 and Hofstra and Towson Universities in 1994. Towson began conference play in 1995. Albany, Binghamton, and Stony Brook Universities joined in 2001. The U. of Delaware and Drexel, Hofstra, and Towson Universities resigned in 2002. The U. of Maryland at Baltimore County joined in 2003. Northeastern U. resigned in 2005.

The final conference standings in the 1979-80 and 1980-81 seasons were based on all games played by the member teams. The first in-conference scheduling arrangement appeared in the 1981-82 season. Wins and losses in conference play and in the post-season tournament (which determined the conference champion) are listed here.

MAINE STATE SERIES

Men's basketball was formally adopted as a championship sport by the Maine Intercollegiate Athletic Association (Maine State Series) in the 1937-38 season. Play continued until the conclusion of the 1973-74 season. Play was suspended in the 1943-44 and 44-45 seasons. The champion institution, effective with the 1949-50 season, received the Paul L. Davidson Trophy, contributed by former Maine Gov. Horace L. Hildreth in memory of Mr. Davidson, a personal friend and Bowdoin College athlete who was killed during World War II. Wins and losses in league play in each of the 35 seasons are listed here.

1999-00 — A FABULOUS SEASON

Coach John Giannini, in his fourth season at Orono, put together a terrific team in the 1999-00 season. The Black Bears won 24 games, a UM record that still stands. Maine was 15-3 in America East, finishing second in the regular season, and was well on its way to an NCAA tournament berth when star guard Andy Bedard went down with a leg injury prior to the league title game vs. Delaware. That resulted in a devastating defeat in a game played on Delaware's home court. Maine had won its first two tourney games by decisive margins, 76-54 vs. Boston U. and 80-63 vs. Hartford. Bedard and Nate Fox were first team, all-America East choices. Front row, l-r, Carvell Ammons, Huggy Dye, Errick Greene, Derrick Jackson, Corey Thibodeau, Tom Waterman, and Co-Capt. Andy Bedard. Back row, l-r, Asst. Coach Mike Mennenga, Coach John Giannini, Todd Tibbetts, Andre Riley, Jamar Croon, Co-Capt. Nate Fox, Julian Dunkley, Colin Haynes, Clayton Brown, and Asst. Coaches Ted Woodward and Ed Jones.

1947-48 — A MEMORABLE SEASON

Coach George "Eck" Allen's 1947-48 team won 11 of 18 games, including the State Series title. Bob Gates led the team in scoring for the second time with a UM record 31-point performance against Northeastern his best effort of the season. The season will be long remembered by veteran UM basketball fans as it included the famous "freeze out" game vs. Rhode Island. With a packed house looking on, Maine tried to prevent the talented visitors from another 100 point game (URI led the nation in scoring that season) with an offensive stall, but it was to no avail as the Rams prevailed, 55-43. Rhody players read newspapers, a ball was kicked into the rafters, and Rhode Coach Frank Keany confronted UM President Arthur Hauck during the game about Maine's tactics. Posing for the team photo were, seated, l-r, Bob Gates, Al Hopkins, Charlie Goddard, Capt. Ted Boynton, and George O'Donnell. Standing, l-r, Mgr. Fred Glover, Don Kelly, Frank Danforth, Al Wing, Hank Peasley, Bill Feeney, and Coach Eck Allen.

1993-94 — AN OUTSTANDING SEASON

Coach Rudy Keeling's 1993-94 Maine five was a strong team, perhaps the best of his eight seasons in Orono. The Bears posted an 18-11 record including a second place, 11-3 record in America East. With four players with double figure scoring averages, the Black Bears made it to the final game of the AE tournament before losing to a powerful Drexel team on the latter's home floor. Front row, l-r, Mark Schmidt, Deonte Hursey, Asst. Coach Mike LaPlante, Coach Rudy Keeling, Asst. Coach Scott Benzie, Casey Arena, and Kip Keeling. Back row, l-r, Adam Kotowski, Chris Collins, Ed Jones, Francois Bouchard, Reggie Smith, Keith Vail, Capt. Ken Barnes, Terry Hunt, and Ramone Jones.

1961-62 MAINE FRESHMAN CAGERS

Maine had many strong freshman basketball teams in the more than five decades that freshmen were not permitted to play varsity sports under NCAA rules. Woody Carville, who also served as coach of Maine's freshman baseball and football teams, coached five frosh teams between 1960 and 1965 with an overall record of 59 wins and only 14 losses. Members of the 1961-62 unit were, front row, l-r, Ray Austin, Doug Turner, Bill Flahive, Dave Joseph, Charlie Lenihan, and Scott Dunham. Second row, l-r, Coach Woody Carville, Roger Pike, John Ireland, Myles Boone, Bob Brewer, Marshall Hall and Laurie Anderson. Third row, l-r, Dick Wyman, Floyd Mongomery, Dave Svendsen, John Gillette, Jim Dolloff, Stan Clark, and Dick Knight.

1979-80 — A TERRIFIC SEASON

Rufus Harris set a new UM scoring record in the 1979-80 season, averaging 25.6 points per game . . . a record that still stands 27 years later. The Black Bears won 15 games, including wins over South Carolina and Massachusetts, and qualified for the ECAC Division One Tournament. Posing for the team photo were, kneeling, l-r, Coach Skip Chappelle, Capt. Rufus Harris, and Asst. Coach Peter Gavett. Standing, l-r, Trainer Phil Mateja, Gary Speed, Jim Mercer, Rick Boucher, Dan Czerapowicz, Rick Carlisle, Joe Johnson, Dave Wyman, Keith Ogden, Clay Gunn, Tom Brown, Chris Brinkman, Champ Godbolt, Bruce Sumpter, Mgr. Mike Nisenbaum, and Asst. Mgr. Nancy Kolls.

1949-50 — QUITE A SEASON

Dr. Rome "Doc" Rankin served as head coach of men's basketball for five seasons between 1949 and 1954. He also worked with the football team, was a professor of education, and served several years as Director of Athletics. His first team (1949-50) was a powerful outfit, winning 13 out of 19 games, including the State Series title. Veteran UM basketball fans will have no trouble recognizing most of the team members. Front row, l-r, Larry Mahaney, Jack Christie, Jim Bradley, John Leet, John Cervone, Art Dentremont, Ralph Jewett, and Lowell Osgood. Back row, l-r, Don Kelsey, Capt. Charlie Goddard, Bert Goddard, Gene Hussey, Al Hopkins, John Leathers, John McAloon, and Vic Woodbrey.
