

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Maine women's basketball program has had two lives. The first consisted of 11 seasons between the 1920 and 1931. In 1931, each of the four women's sports programs in existence during the 1920s were discontinued. Following several years of informal organization during the early 1970s, the basketball program was resurrected in the fall of 1975 as an officially funded sport by the University.

1985-86 — 18 WINS IN A ROW

Coach Peter Gavett's 1985-86 team had a superb season, posting a 22-7 record including 18 straight wins before its first loss. Liz Coffin, one of the most dominating players in UM history, averaged 20.3 points and 10 rebounds per game. She is one of only four Maine players to score more than 2,000 points in her career, and holds University records for most rebounds (380) in one season and in four seasons (1,351). Front row, l-r, Co-Capt. Lauree Gott, Coach Peter Gavett, Asst. Coach Paul Bessey, and Co-Capt. Mary Walker. Standing, l-r, Sonya Wedge, Deborah Ann Duff, Sue Howard, Lisa Carbone, Crystal Cummings, Kelly Nobert, Liz Coffin, Lynne McGouldrick, Katherine Shorey, and Joanna Hamilton.

1996-97 — A POWERHOUSE SEASON

The Bears scored over 100 points four times with Blodgett scoring a still-standing UM record 52 points vs. Towson. She was MVP of the conference, first team all-New England, and first team, academic All-America. In the NCAA first round game at LSU, where the home team prevailed by only nine points, she scored 34 and Jamie Cassidy had a UM post-season tournament record five blocks. Maine teams, during Blodgett's tenure on campus, won 12 straight AE tournament games, a record unparalleled in league history. Front row, l-r, Kristi Carver, Kristen McCormick, Amy Vachon, Tri-Capt. Cindy Blodgett and Sandi Carver, Gabrielle DeShong, Kelly Stubbs, and Mgr. Travis Jacques. Standing, l-r, Coach Joanne Palombo-McCallie, Asst. THE FIRST GAME!

March 12, 1921 – New Hampshire 15, Maine 13

Following is a report by Coach James Baldwin of the first game ever played by a Maine women's team....

In the overtime play the first basket was scored by New Hampshire, thereby giving them the game. The game was well played and evenly contested by both teams. About 300 attended the game in Alumni Gymnasium. The referee was Miss Geneva Smith. Players for Maine were Capt. E. Weatherbee, M. E. Hodgdon, E. Ring, R. E. Hersey, A. Bean, H. M. Wessenger, E. Kitter, M. D. Chase, M. Morell, and T. J. Grover."

WELCOME HOME!

Maine's legion of women's basketball fans were excited in the summer of 2007 to learn that Cindy Blodgett had been selected by Athletic Director Blake James (left) and UM President Bob Kennedy (right) to become the tenth head coach in the program's history. Blodgett, a 1998 UM grad, established numerous University and conference scoring records as an undergraduate and attracted tens of thousands of fans to Alfond Arena.

AMERICA EAST

The primary focus for Maine since the mid 1980s has been competition in America East. The conference evolved from the Seaboard Conference, established in the 1984 and composed of Boston and Northeastern Universities, Brooklyn College, and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. Central Connecticut State U. became a member in 1986. Brooklyn College and Central Connecticut State U. resigned in 1989. The Seaboard Conference was merged into the North Atlantic Conference in 1989 and the title was changed to America East in the late 1990s.

Colgate U. was a member for one season, 1989-90. Drexel U. and the U. of Delaware became members in 1991. Hofstra U. became a member in 1994. Towson U. became a member in 1995. Drexel, Hofstra, and Towson Universities and the U. of Delaware resigned in 2001. The Universities of Albany and Stony Brook and Binghamton U. became members in 2000. The U. of Maryland at Baltimore County became a member in 2003. Northeastern U. resigned in 2004.
