1915 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Maine was recognized as the national champion in 1915 when it won the IC4A title in New York City. With the first NCAA cross country championship meet still more than 30 years into the future, the IC4A meet attracted the top teams in the nation and the title team was declared national champion. Maine was paced by several of the top long-distance runners in UM history, including Frank Preti who finished second in New York; Roger Bell, third; Ed Dempsey, eighth; and Al Wunderly, tenth. Maine also won the New England title in 1915 with Bell leading the team with a third place finish. Front row, left to right: Coach Arthur Smith, Ed Dempsey, Frank Preti, Capt. Roger Bell, George Sullivan and Albert Wunderly. Back row, left to right: Roscoe Hysom, Ray Stevens, Phil Libby and Mgr. Weston Haskell.

1934 MAINE HARRIERS — ONE OF AMERICA'S BEST TEAMS

The 1934 Maine cross country squad proved to be one of the top teams in the land when it finished second in the national championship meet after winning the New England title the previous week. The team was led by Capt. Ken Black, who finished seventh in both the national and New England meets, and sophomore Bill Hunnewell, second in New England. The previous year Hunnewell was both the New England and national freshman champion. Left to right: Mgr. Albert Verrill, Jr., Harry Saunders, Bob Corbett, Bob Wishart, George Clarke, Capt. Ken Black, Gerald Beverage, Ernest Black, Howard Staff, Joel Wishart, Ashton Sawyer, Bill Hunnewell and Coach Chester Jenkins.

1992 - A TERRIFIC SEASON

Maine's 1992 harriers posted an impressive record, finishing second in America East and winning the EIAA championship. Individually, Jamie LaChance was second in America East and fourth in New England, with Jeff Young placing fifth and 13th, and Sean Tynan sixth and 14th, respectfully, in those title runs. LaChance also was the EIAA champion, with Young second and Tynan fifth in that championship race. Front row, left to right: Anthony Anderson, Jamie LaChance, Andy Spaulding, Eric Toole, Skip Ford and Jeff Glew. Standing, left to right: Bill Dye, Ryan Gauthier, Chris Walker, Sheldon Young, Sean Tynan, Ken Lamson, Paul O'Neil, Paul "Steve" Connor, Capt. Jeff Young, Dave Irving and Coach Jim Ballinger.

YEAR-BY-YEAR MEET RESULTS

This section includes results of non-conference meets with the exception of the Keatinge Invitationals which may be found later in this section. Win-loss records for each season are confined to results of meets with five or less teams competing.

It should be noted that the non-conference meet segment of Maine's annual cross-country schedule has changed significantly over the years. Prior to 1949, Maine's annual schedule normally was composed of one or two dual meets and the remaining races were conference championship races. The segment of the schedule devoted to pre-championship races in 1949 was lengthened to give the team more extensive competition leading up to the conference meets. And, as in the past, virtually all of these races were either dual, triangular, or occasionally, quadrangular competitions.

A dramatic change occurred in Maine's pre-championship schedule, starting in 1993. At that point, Division One institutions within the NCAA framework created new scheduling criteria in cross country, as well as in other sports, which decreed that virtually all races were to be conducted against other Division One institutions with a minimum number of teams to be faced each season. This all but eliminated races against teams from Divisions Two and Three, as well as Canadian colleges. Large multi-team fields during the pre-championship segment of the schedule replaced the traditional pattern of dual, triangular and quadrangular fields in order for teams to comply with the new standards.

Listed in this section are scores of all dual, triangular and quadrangular meets, and Maine's place of finish in meets involving five or more teams. There were no non-conference meets in 1914, 1921, 1922, 1929, and 1945, and the program was suspended in 1917, 18, 43, and 44.

1963 — IC4A COLLEGE CHAMPIONS

The IC4A championship meet was divided into two divisions (College and University) in 1963 with teams placings based on enrollments. Maine was entered in the College Division and came away with the team championship as the five top UM harriers finished in the top 22. Gerry Ellis led the way with a sixth place finish, followed by Ben Heinrich, seventh; Howard Shaffer, twelfth; Fred Judkins, thirteenth; and Horace Horton, twenty-second. Front row, left to right: Fred Judkins, Dick Davidson, Capt. Gerry Ellis, Horace Horton, Kirk Hansen, and Ben Heinrich. Back row, left to right: Coach Ed Styrna, John Lee, Howard Shaffer, Lynn Ellis, George Damone, Gerry Graffam, and Mgr. Al Worden.

UNDEFEATED 1951 TEAM

1966 MAINE HARRIERS

AMERICA EAST

Creation of the North Atlantic Conference in the late 1980s, later re-named America East, provided a new conference championship for Maine teams. The initial championship meet was held in 1988. Charter members were Boston, Canisius, Colgate, Niagara, Northeastern, and Siena Universities and the Universities of Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont. Canisius, Niagara, and Siena resigned in 1989. Colgate U. resigned in 1990. Drexel U. and the U. of Delaware became members in 1991, Hofstra U. in 1994 and Towson U. in 1995. Drexel discontinued the sport in 1998. Towson U. and the U. of Delaware resigned in 2001. Albany, Binghamton, and Stony Brook Universities became members in 2002. The U. of Maryland at Baltimore County became a member in 2003. Northeastern U. resigned following the 2004 championship. Team scores of the annual championship are listed below.

1927 — BEGINNING OF A DYNASTY

For three seasons, 1927–28–29, Maine's cross country teams included two of the finest distance runners in the nation in Harry Richardson (fifth from right), and Francis Lindsay (far right). They were co-New England champions in all three seasons. At the national championship meet, Lindsay was second and Richardson fourth both in 1927 and 1928. In 1929, they crossed the finish line hand-in-hand to gain recognition as co-national champions. As a team, Maine won the New England championship in 1927 and 1928 and placed second in 1929. At the national meet, the Black Bears were third in 1927 and second in 1928. The above photo is of the 1927 team. Left to right: Victor MacNaughton, George Ramsdell, Steve Mank, Bob Chandler, Clyde Stinson, Lee Wescott, Worth Noyes, John Stanley, Harry Richardson, Gilbert Austin, Al Benson, Mgr. Hugh Lloyd, and Francis Lindsay. Absent: Capt. Andre Cushing and Coach Frank Kanaly.

I.C.A.A.A.

The Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America, more commonly referred to as the IC4A, has been conducting a cross country championship race each year for nearly a century. Until the NCAA established a national championship race after World War II, the IC4A event was regarded as the nation's most prestigious event and winning teams and individuals were regarded as national champions. The University of Maine was elected to membership in 1915. Maine's greatest successes came in its first year of membership, when it won the team title and again in 1962. In 1929, Harry Richardson and Francis Lindsay broke the tape hand-in-hand and were headlined as national champions. Maine's participation in recent years has been pretty much eliminated due to scheduling conflicts. Top Maine team finishes, as well as the names of Maine runners who finished among the top 50, are as follows:

NEW ENGLAND CHAMPIONSHIP

The University of Maine has competed in the annual New England Intercollegiate Cross Country Championships virtually every fall since 1913. Maine has compiled a remarkable record that includes 15 championships, 10 second place finishes and 10 third place finishes. Seven UM runners have won individual championships including Frank Preti (1914), Forrest Taylor (1926), Harry Richardson and Francis Lindsay (tied, 1927, 1928, and 1929), William Hunnewell (1935), Donald Smith (1937, 1938, 1939), and Paul Firlotte (1955).

YANKEE CONFERENCE

One of the highlight events in Maine's schedule between 1948 and 1979 was the Yankee Conference Championship Meet. Competing teams represented New England's six state universities and, during part of the 1970s, Boston University. Holy Cross also was a league member during two seasons in the early 1970s. The final race was held in 1979. Team scores are shown here.

MURRAY KEATINGE INVITATIONAL

The Murray Keatinge Invitational, held annually in Orono since 1992, was created as the result of the generosity of the late Mr. Keatinge, a Camden resident with a strong interest in cross country. This event has attracted many of the nation's top teams and provides Maine runners with perhaps the strongest competition of the season. Following are team scores of each race, as well as the names of Maine runners who have placed among the top 25 finishers.

YEAR-BY-YEAR MEET SCORES

The first recorded appearance by a freshman / junior varsity cross country team occurred in the 1922 season; the final in 1976. The 1943, 1944 and 1945 seasons were cancelled due to World War II. Following the war, with most freshmen housed at the Brunswick campus, a freshman team was sponsored in the 1947 and 1948 seasons at that site. At Orono, a junior varsity program was sponsored during the 1946, 1947, and 1948 seasons. Freshman cross country at Orono re-appeared in 1949.

NEW ENGLAND AND NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Maine's 1939 Freshman cross country team reached the highest level of achievement when it won both the New England and national championship events for freshman teams. Five UM runners placed among the top 11 in the national meet, led by Dwight Moody, sixth; John Creamer, seventh; Phil Hamm, ninth; Dick Martinez, tenth; and Art Farris, eleventh. Moody, Hamm, Martinez, Creamer and Leo Estabrook were third, fourth, sixth, eighth, and eleventh, respectively, in the New England championship race. Front row, left to right: Faculty Manager of Athletics Ted Curtis, Dwight Moody, Phil Hamm, Art Farris, Stan Frost, John Creamer, Dick Martinez, Leo Estabrook, and Coach Chester Jenkins. Second row, left to right: Charles Pfeiffer, Clinton Adell, Charles Bartley, Ed Falardeau, Bob Jenkins, Ralph Runnels, Wayne McLaughlin, Calvin Conant, and Walter Brady. Third row, left to right: Cliff Beaton, Jim Russell, Gerry Ward, Dick Youlden, Gil Carlson, John Kelley, John Stewart, Clarence Gilman, and Mgr. Carl Newhall.

A REMARKABLE CAREER ENDS IN GLORY

Don Smith, captain of the 1939 Black Bears, earned even more recognition than some of the famous UM runners who preceded him. He is the only UM runner to win the New England individual cross country title four times. The Boston Globe described him as the greatest runner in New England history in its coverage of the 1939 championship meet after Smith crossed the finish line first for the fourth time. He also was one of the elite runners nationally, finishing fourth twice, third once, and sixth once in the national title meet during his years on campus. Posing for the 1939 team photo were, left to right: Mgr. Carl Newhall, John Jordan, Ken Blaisdell, Mark Ingraham, Coach Chester Jenkins, Don Smith, Howard Ehrlenbach, Dale Butterworth, John Dequine, and Faculty Manager of Athletics Ted Curtis.

NEW ENGLAND, IC4A CHAMPIONSHIPS

New England and IC4A Cross Country Championship Meets were held for freshman collegiate runners during the several decades when freshmen were ineligible for varsity teams. Maine produced at least two national (IC4A) champions, William Hunnewell in 1935 and Malcolm Dempsey in 1942, and five New England champions in Harry Richardson (1926), William Hunnewell (1933), George Sawyer (1935), Don Smith (1936), and Paul Hanson (1952). Additionally, in 1939, Maine captured both the New England and IC4A team titles. Locating best performances by UM runners was difficult in some seasons. Those uncovered are listed here.

2006 — A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

1955 NEW ENGLAND AND YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Maine had several outstanding teams during the mid-1950s, led by one of the best distance runners in University history in Paul Firlotte. His senior season, 1955, was especially remarkable as he won the New England individual title and was Yankee Conference champion for the third straight year. He had the good fortune of having several teammates who also were exceptional distance runners, including Dan Rearick, Stan Furrow, Dick Law, and Paul Hanson who finished third, fourth, seventh and tenth, respectively, in the '55 Yankee Conference race. Maine lost only one dual meet during Firlotte's three seasons as a varsity runner. Members of the 1955 team were, seated, left to right: Coach Chester Jenkins, Harry Folster, Phil Emery, Co-Capt. Stan Furrow and Paul Firlotte, Joel Stinson and Dan Rearick. Back row, left to right: Everett Cowett, Dick Dillenbeck, Karl Kraske, Dick Law, Dave Gould, John Lane and Dave Williams.
