The first men's ice hockey team appeared on the scene in the winter of 1922-23. Practices and games were held on an outside rink adjacent to the Stillwater River. The program lasted only two seasons, however. Frequent warm spells created poor ice conditions and the lack of local college opponents made it difficult to maintain an effective schedule. In the mid 1970s, with a major gift from Harold Alfond and the vision of Athletic Director Harold Westerman, the University began construction of Alfond Arena. Over 2.000 University employees and friends also contributed to the project. The University, through the efforts of Mr. Westerman, gained admission into the ECAC ice hockey conference and the current varsity program opened for business in the winter of 1977-78.

(Your editor expresses appreciation to John Foster, owner of Foster Professional Imaging, 630 Main Road, Hampden, for the team photos displayed in this section. Mr. Foster has contributed team photos that are on display in the lobby of Alfond Arena for 30 years and generously "loaned" his collection to this project. Thus, we were able to include photos of many of Maine's outstanding teams over that period.)

1992-93 — A MAGICAL SEASON

Coach Shawn Walsh's 1992-93 team established itself as one of the elite teams in UM athletic history, winning the national championship vs. Lake Superior State in a game that will live forever in the memories of Maine fans. The Bears scored three unanswered goals in four minutes, 35 seconds, in the third period to win the title. Jim Montgomery scored all three on assists from Paul Kariya. The Black Bears compiled a record of 41 wins, one loss and two ties, an achievement virtually unparalled in American intercollegiate ice hockey history. Kariya's season was truly magical as he scored 100 points, was most valuable player in Hockey East and the NCAA tournament and named the country's best player (Hobey Baker Award). With Montgomery scoring 95 points and Cal Ingraham 85, Maine won the Hockey East title and had a 20-game winning streak at one point during the season. Kariya, Montgomery, Garth Snow and Chris Imes were named to the NCAA tournament all-star team; Kariya was Player of the Year and Walsh Coach of the Year in Hockey East and Mike Dunham, Imes, Kariya and Montgomery were first team, All-Americans. Front row, I-r, Mike Dunham, Chris Imes, Kent Salfi, Dan Murphy, Capt. Jim Montgomery, Dave LaCouture, Eric Fenton, Martin Mercier, and Garth Snow. Second row, I-r, Blair Marsh, Cal Ingraham, Justin Tomberlin, Chuck Texeira, Dave MacIsaac, Matt Martin, Asst. Coaches Bruce Major and Red Gendron, Coach Shawn Walsh, Asst. 1998-99 — NATIONAL CHAMPIONS AGAIN!!

It was a wild ride for the Black Bears in the 1998-99 season. They posted a great record, 31-6-4, but finished second in the Hockey East regular season standings and third in the league tournament. They made the most of their invitation to the NCAA Tournament, however, beating Ohio State and Clarkson in the first two rounds, edging Boston College in the semi-finals and a great New Hampshire team in the national title game. Only three weeks earlier, the Bears had been swept by New Hampshire in two games and lost to BC in the HE tournament. Winning the national title truly represented one of the greatest moments in Maine's athletic history. There were many heroes in this epic accomplishment, especially goalie Alfie Michaud whose inspired tournament play resulted in his receiving the distinguished most valuable player award. Dave Cullen and Steve Kariya both were named to the alltournament team, were first team, all-Hockey East, and first team, All-Americans. Niko Dimitrakos also had a brilliant tournament performance and was named to the all-tournament team. Front row, I-r, Adm. Asst. Jeanne Goss, Alfie Michaud, Ben Guite, Capt. Jason Vitorino, Marcus Gastafsson, Capts. Steve Kariya, Bobby Stewart, and Dave Cullen, Cory Larose, Matt Yeats, and Trainer Paul Culino. Second row, I-r, Asst. Coaches Grant Standbrook and Nate Leaman, Matthias Trattnig, Ed Boudreau, Anders Lundback, Eric Turgeon, A. J. Begg, Robert Ek, Gray Shaneberger, Ed Wood, Doug Janik, Magnus Lundback, Barrett Heisten, Asst. Coach Gene Reilly, and Coach Shawn Walsh. Back row, I-r, Adam Tate, Dan Kerluke, Tuomo Jaaskelainen, Troy Kahler, Mike Morrison, Jim Leger, Jim LaLiberty, Peter Metcalf, Niko Dimitrakos, and Ed. Mgr. Richard Britt. Absent, Brendan Walsh.

1983-84 SEASON — END OF AN ERA

The 1983-84 season marked the final campaign for Jack Semler who retired after the season to seek other pursuits. Semler was Maine's first coach of the modern era and is credited for building a strong foundation for the hockey program. He was behind the bench for seven seasons with Maine teams averaging 15 wins per season during his tenure. Todd Bjorkstrand led the team in scoring with 52 points and Jean Lacoste was solid in goal. Front row, I-r, Jean Lacoste, Scott Boretti, Paul Giacalone, Rene Comeault, Capt. Ron Hellen, Todd Bjorkstrand, Jeff Kloewer, Bruce Hegland, Joe Jirele, and Pete Smith. Second row, I-r, Mgr. 1987-88 — HOCKEY EAST REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

The Black Bears of the winter of 1987-88 proved to be one of the nation's top teams, finishing third in the NCCA Tournament and winning 34 games, still the second highest in UM hockey history. There were many individual honors. Coach Shawn Walsh was Hockey East and New England Coach of the Year. Mike McHugh was Hockey East and New England Player of the Year. It was the first time in UM history, and still the only season, that four players scored more than 60 points, led by David Capuano with 85 points, Mike Golden with 75, and McHugh and Mario Thyer with 66. David Capuano was named to the NCAA All-Tournament team and he and brother Jack were first team, all-Americans. They, along with McHugh and Scott King were first team, all-Hockey East. Golden and McHugh were Hobey Baker finalists. Front row, I-r, Asst. Coach Bruce Crowder, Al Loring, Dave Wensley, Dave Nonis, Tri.-Capt. Mike Golden, Coach Shawn Walsh, Tri-Capts. 2005-06 — A FROZEN FOUR TEAM

Coach Tim Whitehead's 2005-06 team created more history for the Maine hockey program by gaining a berth in the Frozen Four. The Bears defeated Harvard and Michigan State in the early round games before losing to Wisconsin in the semi-finals. The Bears finished with a 28-12-3 record. Greg Moore was outstanding, becoming one of only a select few UM players to earn first team, All-Hockey East, All-New England, and All-America honors. Front row, I-r, Matt Lundin, John Hopson, Travis Wight, Tri-Capts. Steve Mullin, Greg Moore and Michel Leveille, Jon Jankus, Derek Damon, and Ben Bishop. Second row, I-r, Eq. Asst. Mgr. John Clauson, Asst. Coaches Dan Kerluke and Campbell Blair, Wes Clark, Josh Soares, Brent Shepheard, Mike Hamilton, Mike Lundin, Rob Bellamy, Keith Johnson, Ryan Shelley, Coach Tim Whitehead, and Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook. Back row, I-r, Eq. Mgr. Eric Marsh, Bret Tyler, Billy Ryan, Vince Laise, Keenan Hopson, Travis Ramsey, Simon Danis-Pepin, Bryan Plaszez, Matt Duffy, Jeff Marshall, Chris Hahm, Strength Coach Will Biberstein, and Trainer Mark Badarak.

2002-03 — AN OUTSTANDING SEASON

Tim Whitehead was named permanent head ice hockey game prior to the 2002-03 season and led the Black Bears to another winning record, 24-10-5. The Bears lost in the opening round of the Hockey East tournament, but still earned an invitation to the NCAA Tournament where they lost to Michigan in the first round. Martin Kariya led the team in scoring with 50 points and was named first team, all-Hockey East, as well as earning the league's sportsmanship award of the year. He was joined by Francis Nault on the all-HE team. Frank Doyle and Jimmy Howard were terrific in goal with 2.14 and 2.45 goals against averages, respectively. Front row, I-r, Jimmy Howard, Don Richardson, Tom Reimann, Tri-Capts. Robert Liscak, Chris Heisten, and Martin Kariya, Lucas Lawson, Gray Shaneberger, Cliff Loya, and Frank Doyle. Second row, I-r, Asst. Coaches Campbell Blair and Brian Grady, Kirk Levesque, John Ronan, Greg Moore, Matt Deschamps, Paul Lynch, Jeff Mushaluk, Dustin Penner, Francis Nault, Derek Damon, Todd Jackson, Colin Shields, Ray Jean, Coach Tim Whitehead, Mgr. Alex Kuehling, and Trainer Mark Badurak. Back row, I-r, Matt Greyeyes, Prestin Ryan, Steve Mullin, Travis Wight, Troy Barnes, Cameron Lyall, and Ben Murphy. Absent, Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook.

1986-87 — BEGINNING OF A DYNASTY

The 1986-87 season marked a turning point in Maine's ice hockey history. The Black Bears, for the first time, were selected for the NCAA Tournament, beginning a run of 17 NCAA appearances over the next 20 years. Eric Weinrich became the first UM player to be selected first team, all-Hockey East. Maine finished third in the regular season standings and were runners-up in the post-season tournament. Dave Capuano and Mike McHugh had great offensive seasons, scoring 59 and 50 points, respectively. McHugh was named defensive player of the year in the conference. Front row, I-r, Coach Shawn Walsh, Al Loring, Mike Golden, Jay Mazur, Tri-Capts. Jack Capuano, David Nonis, and Mike McHugh, John Baker, Steve Santini, Scott King, and Asst. Coach Jay Leach. Second row, I-r, Mgrs. Sean Kincaid and Fred Riley, Rob Braccia, Todd Studnicka, Chris Cambio, Bob Corkum, Eric Weinrich, Bruce Major, Bob Beers, Vince Guidotti, Dave Wensley, Todd Jenkins, Jim Blouin, Trainer Phil Mateja, Asst. Coach Joe Clark, and Mgr. Oleg Cytowicz. Back row, I-r, Eq. Mgr. Steve Jones, Asst. Coach Dave Westby, Guy Perron, Tim Adams, Christian Lalonde, Dave Capuano, Jim Burke, Claudio Scremin, John Massara, and Chuck Santoro. Absent, Asst. Coach Bruce Crowder.

A GREAT ACHIEVEMENT

Many former Maine ice hockey players have gone on to have exceptional careers in professional hockey and John Tortorella is certainly one of them. But John's achievements have been behind the bench rather than on the ice. A standout for the Black Bears between 1987 and 1991, John is head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning of the National Hockey League. He guided the team to the NHL title in 2004, beating the Calgary Flames in the championship series to win the Stanley Cup. Gary Thorne '70, one of the nation's best known broadcasters, had this to say of John . . ." as a coach his style is strictly no-nonsense. "It's exactly the same style he exhibited as a player at Maine — complete effort. You just can't prepare for a hockey game better than John, that's just who he is." John isn't the only outstanding coach in his family. Brother Jim, who also starred at Maine during the late '80s, has had an outstanding coaching record at Colby College.

1986-87 SEASON — A GREAT COACHING STAFF

Outstanding coaching staffs have been a hallmark of men's ice hockey over years. The 1986-87 season's leaders are a good example. Left to right: Coach Shawn Walsh, and Asst. Coaches Jay Leach, Bruce Crowder, Joe Clark, and Dave Westby.

1979-80 — FIRST SEASON IN DIVISION ONE

Maine took a big step forward in the winter of 1979-80, moving into Division One for the first time. Amazingly, the Bears nearly hit the .500 mark with 15 wins against 16 losses and one tie. Playing in the ECAC conference, the team narrowly missed the playoffs, finishing ninth with a10-11-1 league record. Gary Conn again led the team in scoring and Jim Tortorella was solid in net. Front row, I-r, Jeff Nord, Brian McKiernan, Jon Leach, Brian Hughes, Jamie Logan, Capt. Bill Demianik, Marc Son, Larry Page, Joe Crespi, Tom LeBlond, and Jim Tortorella. Second row, I-r, Coach Jack Semler, Dick Totaro, Gary Conn, Mike Morrison, Paul Croke, Dave Walsh, Gaetan Bernier, Richard Cote, David Ellis, Paul Wheeler, John Tortorella, and Don Mason. Back row, I-r, Asst. Coaches Ken Yeates and Gary Wright, Bill Kenny, Dwight Montgomery, Rob Zamejc, Andre Aubut, Michel Vincent, Robert LaFleur, Kenj Fargnoli, Mgr. Larry French, and Trainer John Miliano.

1994-95 — THE BEARS BOUNCE BACK

It took only one season for Maine to regain its role as one of the nation's elite ice hockey programs after the difficulties of the previous season. The 1994–95 Black Bears rolled up 32 wins and six ties with only six losses. Blair Allison had one of the greatest seasons ever for a Maine goalie, playing in all 44 games and earning first team, All-American honors. Chris Imes also was a first team, All-American, was named Player of the Year in Hockey East, and was runner-up for the national player of the year award (Hobey Baker Trophy). Coach Shawn Walsh was named Coach of the Year in Hockey East for the fourth time and reached the pinnacle of success when he received the Spencer Penrose Award (National Coach of the Year) from his fellow coaches around the country. The Black Bears again were selected to the NCAA Tournament and lost in the championship game to Boston University. Allison, Imes and Dan Shermerhorn were named first team, all-NCAA Tournament and Jason Mansoff joined Allison and Imes as first team, all-Hockey East players. Jeff Tory was a force on offense, leading the team in scoring with 55 points. Front row, I-r, Greg Hirsch, Blair Marsh, Tony Frenette, Reg Cardinal, Brad Purdie, Dave MacIsaac, Capt. Chris Imes, Jeff Tory, Jacque Rodrigue, Wayne Conlan, Blair Allison, and Eric Geoffrey. Second row, I-r, Jason Dekker, Tim Lovell, Barry Clukey, Student Eq. Mgr. Chad Sher, Trainer Dick Young, Asst. Coaches Guy Perron and Grant Standbrook, Coach Shawn Walsh, Asst. Coach Greg Cronin, Student Trainer Dick Fournier, Eq. Mgr. Arnold Robertson, Adm. Asst. Third row, I-r, Scott Parmentier, Nils Satterstrom, Dan Shermerhorn, Marcus Gustafsson, Paul Zinchenko, Brian White, Dan Marcotte, Jeff Libby, Jason Mansoff, Tony Tempestilli, Shawn Wansborough, and Marcel Pineau. Absent, Leo Wlasow.

SHAWN WALSH HOCKEY CENTER

(Your author extends thanks to Brent Williamson of the UM staff for putting together this fine coverage of the establishment of the Shawn Walsh Hockey Center.)

There is no doubt that Alfond Arena is home to the greatest fans in college hockey. Anyone who has experienced the facility's big-game atmosphere knows how special a place Alfond Arena is. It is this passion and enthusiasm that truly gives the Black Bears a home-ice advantage.

While this building remains one of the best places to see a college hockey game, some of its amenities have been improved. The University of Maine began construction on the Shawn Walsh Hockey Center in June of 2004. Locker rooms, office spaces, strength and conditioning areas, and the athletic training room were enhanced. These changes better the student-athlete experience, assist with continuing to draw high-caliber student-athletes to Maine, and provide current Black Bears the best training areas to prepare for competition. In addition, fan-friendly improvements to concession areas, the sound system, and Bear Necessities, along with a new Hockey Hall of Fame, complete the Alfond Arena makeover.

In recognition of his accomplishments as a coach and the visionary of the program, the University of Maine dedicated this project in memory of Shawn Walsh. The Shawn Walsh Hockey Center at Alfond Arena provides the program with the necessary improvements to continue to keep Black Bear hockey as one of the truly special programs in the country.

All funding for the project was privately raised. The lead donor was Harold Alfond. In total, over 40 former men's ice hockey players made contributions to the Shawn Walsh Hockey Center. While construction is complete, several naming opportunities still exist. For information on contributing, please contact the Black Bear Club at 207-581-1130.

HE REMEMBERED

Art Demoulas (left) was a member of Maine's first two teams (1977-78 and 78-79) of the modern era. In 2003 he contributed $50,000 to the Alfond Arena Expansion Project. He made the presentation to Pres. Peter Hoff (right) during a reunion of players who gathered to honor the late Andre Aubut, Maine's first all-American. Art and Andre were teammates on the '78-'79 team. Participating in the ceremony were members of Andre's family, I-r, Roxanne, Manon, and Max. Demoulas also presented a check for $50,000 to help finance construction of the Wes Jordan Athletic Training facility in Lengyel Hall. They were magnificent gifts and typical of the support given by many Maine alumni over the years.

1990-91 — A TERRIFIC SEASON

Maine's 1990–91 team should be regarded as one of the best in UM history. With Keith Carney and Jean-Yves Roy both named first team, All-Americans, as well as first team, all-Hockey East, the Bears rolled to a 32-9-2 record. It was the first season in UM history in which two players scored more than 80 points as Roy chalked up 82 points and Jim Montgomery had 81. Brian Downey (63) and Keith Carney (56) also broke the 50-point barrier. Garth Snow and Mike Dunham shared goaltending duties and both were virtually unstoppable. The Bears finished second in the Hockey East regular season standings, lost in the championship game, but were selected to the NCAA tournament where they defeated Minnesota in the first round before losing to Lake Superior State. Front row, I-r, Mike Dunham, Steve Tepper, Eric Fenton, Joakim Wahlstrom, Keith Carney, Tri-Capt. Scott Pellerin, Coach Shawn Walsh, Tri-Capts. Martin Robitaille and Mike Barkley, Tony Link, Dave LaCouture, Brian Straub, and Garth Snow. Second row, I-r, Statistician Debbi Feldman, Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook, Undergraduate Asst. Coach Campbell Blair, Jim Montgomery, Justin Tomberlin, Dan Murphy, Jon Norton, Steve Widmeyer, Brian Downey, Randy Olson, Jean-Yves Roy, Kenht Salfi, Martin Merecier, Grad. Asst. Coach Tim Whitehead, Trainer Dick Young, and Mgr. Jack Hughes. Back row, Mgr. Tim Ziobro, Strength Coach Bob Lehnhard, Matt McKerrow, Chris Imes, Matt Martin, Patrice Tardif, Devin Mintz, Jason Weinrich, Dave MacIsaac, Chuck Texiera, Mgr. Brian Kerry, Student Trainer Dick Buzzell, and Statistician Judd Sher. Absent, Asst. Coach Red Gendron.

1999-00 — HOCKEY EAST CHAMPIONS

It was another great season for Maine fans in the winter of 1999–00. Although the team had a fine record (27-8-5), the Bears were fourth in the Hockey East standings. With great goaltending by Matt Yeats, however, Maine defeated Providence, Boston U., and Boston College in the HE tournament to win the league crown and advance to the NCAA tournament. The Bears defeated Michigan in the quarterfinal round, but lost to North Dakota in the semi-finals. Their post-season accomplishments was a great credit to Shawn Walsh and his able staff. Cory Larose was named first team, all-Hockey East and Jim Leger was presented with the newly-established NCAA Intercollegiate Ice Hockey Humanitarian Award of the Year. Front row, I-r, Mike Morrison, Magnus Lundback, Robert Ek, Tri-Capts. Brendan Walsh, Cory Larose, and Ben Guite, Anders Lundback, Matthias Trattnig, and Matt Yeats. Second row, I-r, Niko Dimitrakos, Doug Janik, Peter Metcalf, Dan Kerluke, Asst. Coaches David Bauer and Gene Reilly, Coach Shawn Walsh, Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook, Student Asst. Coach Adam Tate, A. J. Begg, Eric Turgeon, Barrett Heisten, Mgr. Steve Beam, and Trainer Paul Culino. Back row, I-r, Chris Heisten, Robert Liscak, Michael Schutte, Cliff Loya, Ed Boudreau, Kevin Clauson, Gray Shaneberger, Lucas Lawson, Trapper Clark, Tom Reimann, and Martin Kariya.

2000-01 - END OF AN ERA

The 2000–01 season marked the end of one of the most memorable eras in UM sports history. It was the final season for Coach Shawn Walsh, who passed away from cancer shortly before the start of the 2001–02 season. Despite his weakened condition, Walsh led his final team to another winning record (20-12-7), narrowly miss winning the Hockey East title, and advance once again to the NCAA Tournament. The Black Bears defeated Michigan in the opening round before falling to North Dakota. Front row, I-r, Mike Morrison, Kevin Clauson, Asst. Capt. Dan Kerluke, Co-Capts. Doug Janik and A. J. Begg, Asst. Capt. Matthias Trattnig, Niko Dimitrakos, and Matt Yeats. Second row, I-r, Trainer Paul Culina, Cameron Lyall, Brendan Donovan, Lucas Lawson, Mike Schutte, Gray Shaneberger, Eric Turgeon, Asst. Coach Matt Thomas, Coach Shawn Walsh, Asst. Coaches Grant Standbrook and Gene Reilly, Peter Metcalf, Tom Reimann, Cliff Loya, Robert Liscak, Trapper Clark, and Don Richardson. Back row, I-r, Mike Mantenuto, Colin Shields, Prestin Ryan, Francis Nault, Justin Barauskas, Nate Gagnon, and Todd Jackson. Absent, Chris Heisten and Martin Kariya.

SHAWN WALSH — A COACHING LEGEND

One of the most brilliant coaching careers in U.S. intercollegiate ice hockey circles was cut short with the death of Shawn Walsh due to cancer on Sept. 24, 2001. He was behind the Maine bench for 17 seasons (1984-2001), watching his Black Bear skaters win 64 percent of their games, including two national championships (1999-00 and 1992-93). His '92-'93 team compiled an amazing 41-1-2 record, an accomplishment virtually unparalled in the history of the sport at any level. Walsh was accorded many honors during his all-to-brief career, including the presidency of the American Hockey Coaches Association, being named National Coach of the Year, and four times receiving Hockey East and New England Coach of the Year awards. He coached two Hobey Baker Award winners, 28 All-Americans, eight U.S. Olympians, two Canadian Olympians, two Austrian Olympians, and 35 players who advanced to the National Hockey League. His teams won four Hockey East regular season championships and three Hockey East tournament titles. He was a dynamic teacher and leader who could take credit for creating the powerful Friends of Maine Hockey organization and attracting 17 seasons of sell-out crowds to Alfond Arena. He had an extraordinary level of fire and spirit that will be remembered forever in the hearts of all who knew and enjoyed his presence on the Maine campus.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS!!!

(Appreciation to Brent Williamson of the UM staff for authoring this excellent write-up on Maine's national championship titles of 1993 and 1999.)

THE DECADE OF THE 90'S WITNESSED THE HISTORIC RISE OF MAINE HOCKEY UNDER THE GUIDANCE OF SHAWN WALSH TO NATIONAL PROMINENCE. NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS IN 1993 AND 1999 FURTHER CEMENTED THE 90'S AS THE 'DECADE OF THE BLACK BEAR.'

The 1992-93 University of Maine hockey team stands as one of college hockey's legendary teams. The Black Bears 42-1-2 record has never been threatened in the modern era of college hockey. Only Cornell University's 27-0 record in 1970, the only NCAA Division I team to go undefeated, even approaches the mark set by Maine's first national championship teawm.

The Black Bears blazed through the regular season, suffering only one loss, a 7-6 overtime loss to Boston University (2/19), and two ties, a 3-3 tie with Providence College (10/24) and a 4-4 tie to Clarkson University (1/15). While freshman sensation Paul Kariya tallied a 100-point season (25-75-100) and won the 1993 Hobey Baker Award, linemates Jim Montgomery (32-63-95) and Cal Ingraham (46-39-85) chipped in on college hockey's most prolific scoring line. Montgomery would also be a Hobey

Not to be outshone by the offensive display, future NHL standout goaltenders Garth Snow (21-0-1) and Mike Dunham (21-1-1) formed the nation's top goaltending tandem.

The national championship wouldn't come easy however, as Maine had to claw back from behind to defeat Michigan 4-3 to advance to the championship game. In the championship game, three Lake Superior State goals in the second period staked the Lakers to a 4-2 lead entering the third period. But, Montgomery and Kariya would answer, forever etching their mark in championship history. Montgomery scored three goals in a span of 4:35, all three goals set up by Kariya, to give Maine its first national title and a come-from-behind 5-4 victory.

The 1998-99 University of Maine hockey team traveled a much less direct route to its title. Unlike the '93 team, there would be no Hockey East title, regular season (finished second to New Hampshire) or tournament (Boston College would defeat Maine 3-2 in a semifinal game).

Regular season setbacks didn't deter this gritty Black Bear team however, as Maine got even with both Boston College and New Hampshire when it meant the most, in the Frozen Four.

This team would also be led by a Kariya, Paul's younger brother Steve. All-Americans Kariya and defenseman David Cullen would provide the leadership for a tenacious team that just never quit. The Black Bears clawed their way to a 31-6-4 record and a second national championship.

As with the '93 title, nothing came easy in the Frozen Four. After defeating Ohio State 4-2 and blitzing Clarkson University 7-2, the Black Bears would have to face Boston College in their semifinal game. Goaltender Alfie Michaud matched Eagles' goaltender Scott Clemmensen save for save, each stopped 35 shots, but shot number 37 by Bobby Stewart gave UMaine a 2-1 overtime win.

New Hampshire, led by Hobey Baker Award winner Jason Krog, awaited Maine in the championship game. The Black Bears couldn't protect a one-goal lead in the third period, and Maine found itself in overtime once again. In the end, Michaud simply would not let his team lose, making 46 saves to earn tournament MVP honors. Marcus Gustafsson's goal broke the deadlock 10:50 into overtime, giving the Black Bears their second national title.

2003-04 BLACK BEARS — NATIONAL RUNNER-UP

A brilliant record (33-8-3) was posted by the 2003-04 team, including the nation's #2 ranking as the Bears climbed all the way to the national title game before losing by a single goal to Denver. It was the third straight appearance by a Tim Whitehead-coached team in the NCAA Tournament. A terrific defense was the cornerstone of the season, especially in goal where Jimmy Howard and Frank Doyle proved to be the best net duo in the nation. Howard's goals against average was 1.19 and Doyle's 1.81. Both marks were University of Maine records and they still stand today. Howard was named Hockey East MVP. Todd Jackson was named defensive forward of the year in Hockey East, while Prestin Ryan was named defensive defenseman of the year. Doyle earned the league's top scholar-athlete award of the year. Front row, I-r, Jimmy Howard, Cameron Lyall, Tri-Capts. Jeff Mushaluk, Todd Jackson, and Prestin Ryan, Colin Shields, and Frank Doyle. Second row, I-r, Asst. Coaches Guy Perron and Campbell Blair, Troy Barnes, John Ronan, Steve Mullin, Mike Lundin, Matt Deschamps, Dustin Penner, Greg Moore, Mike Hamilton, Tom Zabkowitz, Brent Shepheard, Josh Soares, Ray Jean, Coach Tim Whitehead, and Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook. Back row, I-r, Trainer Mark Badurak, Derek Damon, Keith Johnson, Jon Jankus, Luciano Aquino, Travis Wight, Ben Murphy, Michel Leveille, Matt Greyeyes, Eq. Mgr. Peter Richmond, and Asst. Eq. Mgr. Alex Kuehling.

1977-78 — FIRST TEAM OF THE MODERN ERA

Completely lacking in experience at the college level, members of the 1977-78 team set the tone for years to come with a winning record. The Black Bears, under Coach Jack Semler, posted a 15-12 record. The Black Bears, placed in the ECAC's Division II conference for their first two seasons, posted a remarkable 9-9 league record. They finished their season with six straight wins. Members of the pioneering team were, front row, I-r, Jeff Nord, Greg Deuel, Bill Fitzgerald, Marc Son, Jim Tortorella, Brian McKiernan, Jim McTernan, Rob Day, and Leon Ouimet. Second row, I-r, Coach Jack Semler, Mgr. Mike Tuell, Art Demoulas, Dave Walsh, Mike Vigue, Jamie Logan, Don Mason, Shannon O'Grady, Joe Crespi, Gary Conn, Asst. Coach Ted Castle, Mgr. Nancy Lancaster, and Trainer John Miliano. Back row, I-r, Tom LeBlond, Brian Hughes, Dan Sweeney, John Collins, Paul Wheeler, Larry Page, Bill Demianiuk, Jon Leach, and Skip Benzie.

GRANT STANDBROOK

One of the most successful and popular coaches in UM ice hockey history, and throughout the intercollegiate ice hockey world, is Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook. Grant has been a member of the Maine staff since 1988. He was an assistant coach at Wisconsin for 12 years and head coach at Dartmouth for five years prior to coming to Maine. Known as the best recruiter in college ice hockey, and a goalie coach without peers, he was selected as the top assistant coach in the nation in 2005 (Terry Flanagan Award). His resume includes recruiting and coaching 29 Olympians and 55 players who have gone on to the NFL. He was an assistant coach of the famous 1976 U. S. Olympic Team. Wisconsin won three NCAA titles during his days in Madison and Maine's two national championships have occurred during his Orono tenure. He was an outstanding soccer and lacrosse player in college and a member of the Canadian national championship soccer team in 1962.

1988-89 — ANOTHER GREAT SEASON

The Black Bears were among the nation's elite teams again in the '88-'89 season as they finished second in the Hockey East regular season standings, but won the HE championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Maine's victory in the HE championship game was earned when Bruce Major, lying on the ice, pushed the winning goal into the Boston College net to climax one of the most exciting games in Maine history. The Bears defeated Providence in the opening round of the NCAA tournament to advance to the Frozen Four, but lost to Minnesota in the quarter-finals and to Michigan State in the battle for third place. Led by Dave Capuano's 67 points and 62 by Scott Pellerin, Maine posted a sparkling 31-14 record for the season. Capuano was a first team, all-Hockey East selection as well as a first team, All-American. He and Steve Kariya were finalists for the Hobey Baker Award, given to the nation's best player. Kariya received the HE sportsmanship of the year award for the third time. Front row, I-r, Shawn Damon, Matt DelGuidice, Bruce Major, Chris Cambio, Tri-Capts. Bob Beers and Guy Perron, Coach Shawn Walsh, Tri-Capt. Bob Corkum, Christian Lalonde, Todd Jenkins, Vince Guidotti, Scott King, and Eq. Mgr. Fred Riley. Second row, I-r, Mgr. Jack Hughes, Asst. Coach Bruce Crowder, Strength Coach Bob Lehnhard, Scott Pellerin, Mike Barkley, Claudio Scremin, Brian Bellefeuille, John Massara, Dave Capuano, Jim Burke, Luke Vitale, Mario Thyer, Campbell Blair, Martin Robitaille, Joakim Wahlstrom, Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook, Ed. Mgr. Steve Jones, and Asst. Coach Greg Cronin. Back row, I-r, Trainer Dick Young, Dan Griffin, Tony Link, Eric Fenton, Garth Snow, Steve Tepper, Dan Fowler, Steve Widmeyer, Keith Carney, Dave LaCouture, and Brian Straub.

FAMILIAR FIGURES

Veteran Maine hockey fans will recognize the three men shown here. Bob LaVerdiere (left), Jim Sady (center), and Dan Wiswell (right) were responsible for making Alfond Arena an attractive and comfortable home for Maine's teams for many years during the 1970s and 1980s. They are shown with the first Zamboni machine, contributed by Pleasant Hill Dairy.

E. C. A. C. DIVISION II

Maine was a member of the Eastern College Athletic Conference's Division II East during the 1977-78 and 1978-79 seasons before moving to Division I. Members were American International, Babson, Bowdoin, Bridgewater State, Bryant, Colby, Holy Cross, Merrimack, St. Anselm's, and Salem State Colleges and the Universities of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts/Boston, Massachusetts/Lowell, New England, and New Haven. Round robin play did not exist; teams were simply required to schedule only a minimum number of contests in order to qualify for the league's post-season tournament. Also, contests vs.opponents in the ECAC West were permitted. Standings for the two seasons in which Maine was a member of the ECAC East are shown here.

1983-84 MAINE STAFF

Jack Semler (left) and his assistants, Gary Wright and Jeff McLaughlin led the Black Bears in the '83-'84 season. Wright was behind the bench for five seasons (1979-84) while McLaughlin spent only the 1983-84 season in Orono.

E. C. A. C. DIVISION I

Maine competed in the ECAC's Division One Conference between 1979 and 1984. Members were Boston, Dartmouth, and Providence Colleges; Boston, Brown, Clarkson, Colgate, Cornell, Harvard, Northeastern, Princeton, St. Lawrence and Yale Universities; the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont; and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Standings for each season are shown here.

1984-85 — A NEW ERA BEGINS

The 1984-85 season saw Shawn Walsh take over as the new coach of the Maine hockey team and while victories were few and far between, he recruited a number of new players whose achievements would be significant in succeeding seasons. Front row, I-r, Asst. Coach Mike Piette, Ray Jacques, Jeff Kloewer, Bruce Hegland, Co-Capt. Rene Comeault, Coach Shawn Walsh, Co-Capt. Ron Hellen, Pete Maher, Kevin Mann, Joe Jirele, and Asst. Coach Jay Leach. Second row, I-r, Ray Roy, Mark Crowley, Dave Wensley, Stan Czenczek, Scott Smith, Steve Charette, Jay Mazur, Ivan Bermejo, John Baker, Brad Odegaard, Pete Smith, Trainer Phil Mateja, and Student Trainer Rich Stoeppel. Back row, I-r, Jean LaCoste, Mike Hernon, Paul Lelievre, Todd Studnicka, Jim Parcell, Steve Santini, Dewey Wahlin, Dave Nonis, John McDonald, Scott Drevitch, Mike McHugh, Jim Freedman, and Bill Corbo.

2006-07 — A ROLLER COASTER SEASON

There were many ups and downs in the 2006-07 season. The Black Bears won their first seven games, moved to the #1 ranking in the country, but fell back with several mid-season losses and failed to make the Hockey East tournament after finishing fifth in the standings. Maine's non-league accomplishments were good enough to attract the University's ninth straight NCAA Tournament bid, however, and the Bears made the most of it, winning first and second round games to advance to the Frozen Four. Alas, a semi-final loss to Michigan State brought the season to an end, but not before the Bears posted another winning record, 25-16-2. It was the sixth season for Tim Whitehead as head coach and sixth straight season that the Bears were selected for the NCAA Tournament. Michel Leveille closed his UM career with many accomplishments, including being named first team, all-Hockey East, and first team, All-America. Mike Lundin won the league sportsmanship award and goalie Ben Bishop, who missed several games with injuries, compiled a sparkling 2.14 GAA average. Front row, I-r, Dave Wilson, Keith Johnson, Mike Hamilton, Tri-Capts. Josh Soares, Michel Leveille, and Mike Lundin, Brent Shepheard, Rob Bellamy, and Ben Bishop. Second row, I-r, Asst. Coaches Dan Kerluke and Guy Perron, Dan Morse, Bret Tyler, Vince Laise, Billy Ryan, Travis Ramsey, Simon Danis-Pepin, Bryan Plaszez, Matt Duffy, Keenan Hopson, Wes Clark, Shane Foley, Coach Tim Whitehead, and Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook. Back row, I-r, Eq. Mgr. Eric Marsh, Asst. Eq. Mgr. Robbie Hayes, Jeff Marshall, Tony Morrone, Brett Carriere, Tyler Czuba, Teddy Purcell, David de Kastrozza, Zach Sill, Chris Hahn, Trainer Mark Badurak, and Strength Coach Tim Guillerault.

HOCKEY EAST

Establishment of the Hockey East Association in 1984 gave Maine a new conference home. Charter members were Boston and Providence Colleges, Boston and Northeastern Universities, and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Massaschusetts/Lowell.

Merrimack College gained admission in 1989 and the University of Massachusetts/Amherst in 1994. The University of Vermont became a member in 2004.

Hockey East and the Western Collegiate Hockey Association conducted an interlocking schedule during in-season play for the first five years of Hockey East. Games between Hockey East members and WCHA members were counted in the regular season standings of both conferences. Consequently, total wins and losses in Hockey East conference standings for the 1984-85, 85-86, 86-87, 87-88, and 88-89 seasons do not balance due to the inclusion of results of contests vs. WCHA opponents. The Hockey East post-season tournament, however, included only Hockey East members.

Members of the WCHA were Colorado College; the Universities of Denver, Minnesota, Minnesota/Duluth, North Dakota, Northern Michigan, and Wisconsin; and Michigan Technological University.

Standings for each season of conference and post-season tournament play are shown here.

2001-02 BLACK BEARS — NATIONAL RUNNER-UP

The 2001–02 season was most difficult for Maine's ice hockey team. Legendary coach Shawn Walsh died of cancer just prior to the start of the season, and his newest assistant, Tim Whitehead, was made interim coach. Team members dedicated the season to their late leader and accomplished much along the way, finishing with a 26-11-7 record and earning an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. The Bears defeated Harvard, Boston U., and New Hampshire in early round games, but fell to Minnesota in the national title game by a single goal. Coach Whitehead's fellow coaches around the country recognized his performance and voted him National Coach of the Year. Niko Dimitrakos and Peter Metcalf were seasonal offensive leaders with 51 and 50 points, respectively, and Mike Morrison was powerful in goal, limiting opponents to 2.19 goals per game. Metcalf and Morrison were elected first team, all-Hockey East. Front row, I-r, Mike Morrison, Strength Coach Bob Lehnhard, Asst. Coach Campbell Blair, Niko Dimitrakos, Chris Heisten, Capt. Peter Metcalf, Martin Kariya, Coach Tim Whitehead, Asst. Coach Matt Thomas, and Matt Yeats. Second row, I-r, Eq. Mgr. Josh MacDonald, Frank Doyle, Francis Nault, Tom Reimann, Robert Liscak, Cliff Loya, Mike Schutte, Gray Shaneberger, Paul Lynch, Matt Deschamps, Lucas Lawson, Colin Shields, Prestin Ryan, Don Richardson, and Trainer Mark Badurak. Back row, I-r, Matt Greyeyes, Jon Jankus, Ben Murphy, Cameron Lyall, Todd Jackson, Landon Bathe, John Ronan, Troy Barnes, Derek Damon, Chad Anderson, and Paul Falco. Absent, Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook.

1991–92 — HOCKEY EAST TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

The 1991–92 season was a bitter-sweet journey for Maine. The Black Bears posted a 31-4-2 record, but 13 wins were taken away when the NCAA ruled a player ineligible due to an error regarding transfer credits. That left the team with an "official" record of 18-17-2. It cost the team the regular season Hockey East title, but the Black Bears came through the HE tournament without a loss and earned an NCAA tournament berth. A 3-2 loss to Michigan State in the first round ended the season. The campaign was not without further glory, however, as Scott Pellerin became the first Maine player in history to win the Hobey Baker Award, given to the nation's best player. Jean Yves-Roy was a finalist and both were named first team, all-America. Pellerin also was named HE Most Valuable Player. Front row, I-r, Mike Dunham, Brian Downey, Steve Widmeyer, Tri-Capts. Martin Robitaille, Scott Pellerin, and Mike Barkley, Steve Tepper, Tony Link, Randy Olson, and Garth Snow. Second row, I-r, Mgr. Brian Keery, Student Trainer Richard Buzzell, Mgrs. Shannon Coiley and Jodi Diou, Martin Mercer, Jim Montgomery, Jean-Yves Roy, Devin Mintz, Dave LaCouture, Trainer Dick Young, Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook, Coach Shawn Walsh, Asst. Debbi Feldman. Back row, I-r, Matt McKerrow, Chris Imes, Wayne Conlan, Justin Tomberlin, Andy Silverman, Matt Martin, Jason Weinrich, Patrice Tardif, Jim Burcar, Chuck Texiera, and Lee Saunders. Absent, Asst. Coach Joe Clark, Claudio Kalser, and Rob Howland.

1997-98 — A NEAR MISS

The Black Bears of the winter of 1997-98 had a difficult season, but still posted a winning record with 17 victories, 15 losses and two ties. Highlight of the season was the team's play in the Hockey East tournament. Despite a sixth place finish in the regular season standings, the Bears defeated #3 seed New Hampshire in two games at Durham in the best-of-three quarterfinals and edged UMass Lowell in the semi-finals before losing to BC, 3-2, in the championship game. Unfortunately, there was no invitation to the NCAA tournament. Steve Kariya received the league's individual player sportsmanship award for the second time, and the league team sportsmanship award went to the Black Bears as well. Front row, I-r, Richard Britt, Alfie Michaud, Marcus Gustafsson, Scott Parmenter, Tri-Capts. Shawn Wansborough, Brian White, and Steve Kariya, Dave Cullen, Jason Vitorino, Bryan Masotta, and Chris Hansen. Second row, I-r, Trainer Paul Culino, Adm. Asst. Back row, I-r, Dan Kerluke, Matthias Trattnig, Anders Lundback, Eric Turgeon, A. J. Begg, Robert Ek, Nate Ponitz, Jason Price, Magnus Lundback, Tuomo Jaaskalainen, and Adam Tate. Absent, Mike Garrow, Matt Oliver.

1989-90 — A GREAT SEASON

The 1989-90 season became another successful chapter in UM ice hockey history as the Black Bears rolled to a 33-11-2 record and another NCAA Tournament appearance. Four players had great offensive seasons with Jean-Yves Roy scoring 65 points, Jim Montgomery 60, Scott Pellerin 56 and Martin Robitaille 52. Scott King was immense in goal, setting a UM record by allowing only 2.63 goals per game. Shawn Walsh was named Hockey East Coach of the Year and King was selected first team, all-Hockey East. The Bears beat Bowling Green in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, but lost to Wisconsin in the second round. Front row, I-r, Matt DelGuidice, Joakim Wahlstrom, Dan Fowler, Brian Bellefeuille, Jim Burke, Tri-Capt. Guy Perron, Scott King, Tri-Capts. Christian Lalonde and Claudio Scremin, John Massara, Steve Tepper, Campbell Blair, and Garth Snow. Second row, I-r, Eq. Mgr. THE MODERN ERA BEGINS

Intercollegiate ice hockey began again at Maine on the night of November 18, 1977, as Maine played host to Acadia University of Wolfville, Nova Scotia. The ceremonial first puck was dropped by benefactor Harold Alfond, while UM President Howard Neville looks on. Maine's first All-American, Gary Conn represented the Black Bears in the ceremony and appropriately, scored the game's first goal at 1:55 of the second period. In describing his gift that largely financed construction of Alfond Arena, Mr. Alfond said "no building gives a community more use than a rink. People from six to 60 can use it. All kinds of programs can be run there 20 - 21 hours a day."

1978-79 - 25 VICTORIES

Coach Jack Semler's 1978-79 team captured the hearts of their fans with 25 wins in only the second season of the sport on campus. Andre Aubut became the first UM player to earn first team, all-conference honors as the Bears compiled a 16-4 record in the second and final season of ECAC Division Two play. Accomplishments included wins over veteran Division I teams Northeastern and Vermont. Gary Conn, Joe Crespi and Brian Hughes all scored more than 50 points and goalie Jeff Nord held opponents to 2.87 goals per game, a UM mark which would remain for several seasons. Front row, I-r, Leon Ouimet, John Tortorella, Rob Day, Jon Leach, Jeff Nord, Robert LaFleur, Marc Son, Richard Cote, and Jim Tortorella. Second row, I-r, Mgr. Mike Tuell, Coach Jack Semler, Jim McTernan, Dwight Montgomery, Art Demoulas, Gary Conn, Jamie Logan, Capt. Dan Sweeney, Mike Vigue, Joe Crespi, Paul Wheeler, and Asst. Coaches Ted Castle and Ken Yates. and Mgr. Nancy Lancaster. Back row, I-r, Tom LeBlond, Brian Hughes, Brian Taylor, Larry Page, Don Mason, Bill Demianiuk, Andre Aubut, Dave Ellis, Kent Lannon, and Trainer John Miliano.

1996-97 MAINE SQUAD

Maine had another good season in the winter of 1996-97, posting a 24-10-1 record and finishing third in the Hockey East standings. Unfortunately, HE directors voted that the Black Bears could not compete in the league tournament due to infractions that had occured two years previously. The Bears picked up two noteworthy awards, however, as Steve Kariya became the first recipient of the league's new sportsmanship award and the full team was presented with the Charles Holt Trophy as having the highest level of sportsmanship in the conference. Front row, I-r, Javier Goritti, Shawn Wansborough, Jeff Libby, Trevor Roenick, Capt. Reg Cardinal, Dan Shermerhorn, Jason Mansoff, Scott Parmenter, Leo Wlasow, and Alfie Michaud. Second row, I-r, Bryan Masotta, Dave Cullen, Paul Zinchenko, Brian White, Asst. Coach Mario Thyer, Interim Head Coach Greg Cronin, Asst. Coach Bernie Sandford, Eq. Mgr. Chad Sher, Jason Vitorino, Matt Oliver, Steve Kariya, and Eddie Washuk. Back row, I-r, Will Pasquill, Nils Satterstrom, Jim Leger, Chris Roeder, Aaron Boone, Robert Ek, Jason Price, Ben Guite, Marcus Gustafsson, Cory Larose, and Shawn Mansoff. Absent, Asst. Coach Grant Standbrook and Bobby Stewart.

1993-94 BLACK BEARS

The 1993-94 season was a difficult time for Maine hockey as the team was forced to forfeit 14 wins due to NCAA rules infractions. The Bears posted a 20-15-1 record, but it was changed to 6-29-1 as the result. Players were denied individual honors that normally go to a team with a winning record. Front row, I-r, Blair Allison, Dave MacIsaac, Jason Weinrich, Patrice Tardif, Co-Capts. Andy Silverman and Cal Ingraham, Chuck Texeira, Lee Saunders, Justin Tomberlin, and Blair Marsh. Second row, Eq. Mgr. Arnold Robertson, Team Coordinator Susan Williams, Peter Nordell, Mike Latendresse, Barry Clukey, Jack Rodrigue, Asst. Coaches Mike LaZarrera and Grant Standbrook, Coach Shawn Walsh, Asst. Coach Greg Cronin, Brad Mahoney, Wayne Conlan, Brad Purdie, Reg Cardinal, Trainer Dick Young, Student Trainer Dick Fournier, and Student Eq. Mgr. Chad Sher. Back row, I-r, Tim Lovell, Tony Frenette, Marcel Pineau, Dan Shermerhorn, John St. Pierre, Travor Roenick, Mike Ray, Jason Dekker, Jeff Libby, Paul Zinchenko, Jason Mansoff, and Leo Wlasow.
