TRAIL BLAZERS

OUTSTANDING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Patricia McCormick holds a unique record among UM athletes in all sports. A talented distance runner, she qualified for three NCAA Championships in the same academic year (1994-95) . . . cross country, indoor track, and outdoor track. She holds University indoor records in the 3,000 and 5,000 meter runs.

MAINE STANDOUTS

Barbara Lukacs, Beth Heslam, and Ann England (l-r) were leading point scorers for Maine's indoor teams during the early 1980s. All were multiple title-holders in the annual Maine State Meet while England was New England champion in the 1,000 meter runs in the '83-'84 and '84-'85 seasons.

RECORD HOLDER

Kathryn Souviney is the top hurdler in the history of UM women's indoor track, holding the University records for the 60 yard hurdles (8.35) and 60 meter hurdles (9.03).

HANA PELLETIER

Hana Pelletier had a fine career in her seasons as a member of the UM women's indoor track team. She holds the University record for 800 meters, and was a member of two record-holding relay teams (4 x 800 meters and distance medley relay). She also was a three-time New England champion, winning the 800 meter run in 2006 and 2007 and was a member of the winning 4 x 800 meter relay team in 2007.

AMERICA EAST

The North Atlantic Conference (late re-named America East) established an indoor track championship for women in the winter of 1989-90. Charter members were Boston, Colgate and Northeastern Universities and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. Colgate U. resigned in 1991. Drexel U. and the Universities of Delaware and Hartford joined in 1993. Drexel U. discontinued indoor track in 1994. Towson U. joined in 1997. Towson U. and the U. of Delaware resigned in 2001.

Binghamton, Stony Brook and Albany Universities joined in 2002 and the U. of Maryland at Baltimore Country in 2004. Northeastern U. resigned in 2005. Team scores for each of the championships are listed as follows:

Brenda Sheehan, Tammy Stinson, Debbie Cox, and Grad. Asst. Jim Garster.

A CHAMPION PERFORMER

Viktoriya Rybalko will be remembered for a long time as one of the finest female athletes in UM history. Her accomplishments in indoor and outdoor track were astounding. She was a six-time New England champion indoors, twice outdoors, and won 10 America East titles. She was a first-team all-American as the result of finishing second in the long jump at the NCAA National Championships in 2003. She set 11 UM records. She holds AE and NE records in the long jump and triple jump. She was named MVP at the 2001-02 and 2002-03 AE meets. She also was a brilliant student, receiving the University's top female athlete award (Dean Smith Award) as a senior. She graduated in 2003 with degrees in microbiology and biochemistry.

ALL AMERICAN

Ann Turbyne brought fame to the University in the late 1970s when she qualified for the AIAW national championship meet and finished third in the shot put. That gave her a place on the All-America team. Nearly 30 years have passed since her days at Orono, but her best effort in that event (52' 2 1/2") still stands as the UM record. She also is the only UM female track alumna to gain a berth on the U.S. Olympic Team.
