LINDSAY AND RICHARDSON

One of the more famous photos in Maine's sports history is this shot of Francis "Bud" Lindsay and Harry Richardson crossing the finish line in a first place tie in the 1929 national intercollegiate cross country championship meet at Van Cortlandt Park in New York City. The legendary pair also excelled in outdoor track during one of Maine's greatest eras in the sport, the late 1930s. Richardson was New England two mile champion in 1928 and 1929 and tied with his teammate for first place in 1930.

BECKETT FAMILY TRACK AND FIELD COMPLEX

The Beckett Family Track and Field Complex was constructed in the late 1990s with a gift from the late Clarence B. Beckett, a 1923 graduate who contributed nearly $500,000. to the project. Mr. Beckett was a member of the track team during his undergraduate days and retained a high degree of fondness for his alma mater and the football and track programs during his lifetime. The project included a new synthetic running surface (8 lanes), three long and triple jump areas, two shot put areas, two javelin runways, two hammer and discus cages, a hexagonal high jump area, a steeplechase pit, and four pole vault areas. The complex surrounds the Alfond Stadium football and field hockey playing facilities.

The Complex has hosted many major meets during the past decade. In 1998, it attracted the U. S. Track and Field Masters National Championship that drew top master athletes from around the world. That event came to Beckett Complex again in 2002 and 2007. In 1999, it was the site of the men's New England intercollegiate championship meet and in 2003 it hosted the America East championships.

Other events held at Beckett Complex have included the USA Region I Junior Olympics, Special Olympics, USATF Maine Youth Championships, the Maine USATF Quebec-Atlantic Canada Open Championship and the USA Junior National Racewalk Championship. A number of high school meets have been held there as well.

Jim Ballinger, head coach of Maine track at the time of the building of the Complex, noted, "what we envisioned was a premier facility in the Northeast that would attract championship meets for all levels of competition. There is no doubt that he was correct in his forecast.

1935 — THE TRADITION CONTINUES

Maine had few peers in New England college track circles during the mid 1930s. From 1933 to 1936, the Black Bears were undefeated in dual meets and were a dominant program in championship meets. Members of the 1935 squad were, front, l-r, Mgr. Ernest Saunders, Bill Cole, Harry Saunders, Ernest Black, Clayton Totman, Capt. Maurice Goddard, Ken Black, Bob Wishart, Joel Marsh, and Coach Chester Jenkins. Back, l-r, Faculty Mgr. of Athletics Ted Curtis, George Clarke, Vincent Hathorn, Myron Collette, Richard Ireland, George Frame, Dana Sidelinger, Harold Webb, Don Huff, John Murray, Bob DeWick, and Tr. Stan Wallace. Absent: Alton Bell, George Hitchings, Bill Hunnewell, Rod Mullaney, and Howard Stagg.

1947 — HOMELESS CHAMPIONS

Maine's 1947 outdoor track team was dubbed the "homeless champions" as the result of a new football stadium and running track that was under construction during the team's spring season. Thus, most practices were confined to the fieldhouse. The Bears still had a good season, winning the State Meet and scoring well at the New England Championships, led by Earle Vickery, New England javelin champion. Front row, l-r, Sam Silsby, Charles Chapman, Wally Brown, Elmer Folsom, Bob Emerson, Blaine Beal, Carroll Taylor, Arnie Davis, and Doug Morton. Second row, l-r, Will Cote, Ken Vennett, Foster Jacobs, John Collins, George Marsanskis, Alton Sproul, George Higgins, Dick Dow, Jim Davee, and Coach Chet Jenkins. Third row, l-r, Gene O'Brien, Bob Hanson, Bill Rogers, Lew Schlotterback, Willis Libby, Sumner Robinson, Charles Rowley, and Morton Bartlett. Back row, l-r, Napoleon Spenard, Everett Gerrish, Jim Goodwin, Ray Peppard, Dick Bleakney, Joe Parkhurst, and Earle Clifford.

1914 MAINE TEAM

The sport of men's outdoor track was in its 21st year at Orono in 1914 and all agreed it was the best team in the University's history at the time. The Maine men won the state championship and finished second in the New England championship meet. Many of Maine's finest athletes of the day (several are in the UM Hall of Fame) were members of the team. Charles Rice, who died a hero's death in World War I and whose name is etched on the highest award still presented annually by the University's ROTC's unit, won the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the New England meet, both in record times (10.0 and 22.0). Guy Palmer and Harold Bailey also were New England champions in the high jump and hammer throw, respectively. Front row, l-r, Wilson Morse, Paul Gerrish, Roger Bell, Capt. Wayland Towner, Arthur St. Onge, Ralph Pierce, and Frank Preti. Second row, l-r, Frank "Pat" French, Leon MacLaughlin, Jim Gulliver, Charles Ruffner, Philip Thomas, Harry Williams, and Guy Palmer. Third row, l-r, Ed Dempsey, Jim Smiley, Harold Bailey, Charles Rice, Herb Skolfield, and George Ashworth. Back row, l-r, Coach Art Smith, Herb McCobb, and Mgr. Paul Warren.

A SPECIAL DAY

Saturday, May 24, 1958, was an historic day in the history of men's outdoor track at Maine. The New England Association held its annual championship meet at Orono on that date (for the first time in the history of the Association) in recognition of contributions to the sport by Faculty Manager of Athletics Ted Curtis during his 36-year career in Orono. Coach Ed Styrna and Mr. Curtis are shown here looking over some new implements purchased for the meet. The meet drew a crowd of more than 2,000 to Alumni Field and Maine's team did itself proud, finishing second. Phil Haskell (100), Dale Bessey (880) and Bill Schroeder (pole vault) were individual champions. Several meet and University records were broken under ideal weather conditions.

YEAR-BY-YEAR MEET RESULTS

Excluding conference meets, non-scoring meets and meets with partial entries. There were no dual meets before 1906. Team scores shown and win-loss records based on meets with five or less teams.

AMERICA EAST

Creation of the North Atlantic Conference in the late 1980's, later re-named America East, gave Maine's men's outdoor track teams a new conference championship to compete for each season. Charter members were Boston and Northeastern Universities and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. Colgate U. was a member only in 1990. The U. of Hartford joined in 1991. Drexel U. and the U. of Delaware joined in 1992. Drexel U. discontinued men's outdoor track following the 1995 season.

Towson U. joined in 1997. The U. of Delaware and Towson U. resigned following the 2001 season. The U. of Vermont discontinued men's outdoor track between 2002 and 2004. Albany, Binghamton, and Stony Brook Universities joined in 2002. The U. of Maryland at Baltimore County became a member in 2004. Northeastern U. resigned following the 2004 season. Points scored in the annual championship meet are shown here.

EASTERN INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

For several years during the 1980s and early 1990s Maine teams annually competed in a championship meet conducted by the E.I.A.A. The organization consisted of 21 colleges and universities in NCAA Divisions I and II throughout New England. Best Maine team finishes were in 1986 and 1988 when the Black Bears finished third.

I.C.A.A.A.A.

The Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America, more commonly referred to as the IC4A, has been conducting an outdoor track and field championship for men for nearly a century. Until the NCAA established a national championship meet in men's outdoor track following World War II, the IC4A event was regarded as the nation's most prestigious event and winning teams and individuals were regarded as national champions. A number of Maine's top trackmen have competed in this event, with individual titles earned on eight occasions since 1915.

MAINE INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Maine State Series began conducting a men's outdoor track championship in 1895. Members were Bates, Bowdoin, and Colby Colleges and the U. of Maine. The meet was not held in 1917 and 1918 (WW I), 1934 (disagreements among members, although directors voted to award the title to Bowdoin by default), and 1944 and 1945 (WWII). The conference disbanded after the 1974 meet, but the meet continued until 1993 under the auspices of the head coaches. Altogether, a total of 94 meets were conducted, making the event one of the most often held championships in U.S. college track and field history. Scores of each of the events are listed below. (Note: Maine did not compete in the 1980 meet due to scheduling difficulties; thus the results of that meet are not included in this listing.)

ROLLAND RANSON

Great coaches and a stable staff have been hallmarks of Maine's cross country and track and field programs more many decades. Chester Jenkins (27 years), Ed Styrna (29 years), Jim Ballinger (37 years) and Mark Lech (nine years) and who are seen in team photos in this section, have served as head coaches. Rollie Ranson has served as assistant coach for the past 19 years and has been responsible for attracting and managing many of the national and international meets that have been held at Orono over the past two decades. He served as an assistant coach at Miami of Ohio, Tennessee, and Central Michigan prior to coming to Orono.

1947 BRUNSWICK ANNEX SQUAD

Most first-year male students attended classes and lived in Brunswick between 1946 and 1949 due to a shortage of dorm space on the Orono campus. The facility was called, appropriately, the Brunswick Annex. The University utilized barracks and facilities that were used by the Navy during World War II. The Annex track team, in the spring of 1947, had a good season, posting a 7-0 record. The team was coached by Joe Zabalski, later an assistant football coach at Orono, head football coach and eventually athletic director at Northeastern; and Phil Hamm, one of Maine's premier distance runners between 1940 and 1943 and later a professor of mathematics at Orono. Front row, l-r, Warren Marr, Elbert Bates, and Fred Murkland. Second row, l-r, Lew Hughes, Ernie Lowell, Ray Humes, Edgar Turmelle, Lou Oddi, Dave Cates, Bob Redman, Ron Cole, and Gerry Alden. Back row, l-r, Coaches Joe Zabalski and Phil Hamm, John MacDonald, Ray Ingalls, Dick Lyttle, Steve Orach, Ernest Brown, and Mgr. Peter Arseneau.

1954 BLACK BEARS

Maine enjoyed another good season in the spring of 1954, winning the state championship and placing third in the Yankee Conference. Despite a knee injury, Bill Calkin won both hurdle events in the state and was named MVP of the meet. Paul Firlotte and Ed Bogdanovich also were state champions while Calkin and Firlotte were Yankee Conference champions in the low hurdles and two mile run, respectively. Front row, l-r, Ed Touchette, Colwyn Haskell, Charles Rearick, Paul Firlotte, Capt. Bill Calkin, Dave Smith, Bill Johnson, P. Leathers, and Chellis Smith. Rear, l-r, Jim Holden, Richard Dodge, Tom Shea, Gerald Smith, Stan Furrow, Bill Tiedemann, Walter Rule, Brad Claxton, Jack Nivison and Coach Chester Jenkins.

ALTON BELL

Any listing of the best all-around athletes in UM history must include Alton Bell. He lettered in four sports: baseball, indoor track, outdoor track, and riflery. Between his freshman year (1933–34) and senior year (1936–37), he was a member of both the baseball and outdoor track teams simultaneously, serving as captain of both in the spring of 1937. He was New England champion in the javelin in 1936 and 1937 and national champion in the event in 1936. In baseball, during his three varsity seasons, he batted .333, .395, and .479. His average for the three seasons was .406, one of, if not the best in UM baseball history. This photograph was taken of Bell (left) and his three nearest competitors, Paul King of Penn and Don Houpt of Cornell, at Franklin Field in Philadelphia following his winning of the national championship in the javelin throw with a toss of 197' 8 1/4" in 1936.

Boston University entered the conference in 1972 while Holy Cross was a member for one year only, 1972. The conference disbanded following the 1980 meet. Team scores for each meet are as follows:

2007 BLACK BEARS

1962 STATE AND YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The 1962 season was another great year for Maine's outdoor track program as the Black Bears won both the State and Yankee Conference championships. It was a powerful outfit, outscoring its nearest rival by 15 points in the YC meet. Bill Blood became the first and only UM athlete in the 33-year history of the YC to win three individual titles in the same season, capturing the discus, shot put and hammer. Pete MacPhee won the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Mike Kimball the mile, Dave Parker the 400 and Baron Hicken the 120 yard high hurdles.
