2003 — NEW ENGLAND CHAMPIONS

The 2003 season was special for the Black Bears. After a third place finish in the America East title meet, the Black Bears moved on to the New England championship and came home with the first title in the history of the women's outdoor track program. Viktoriya Rybalko was New England champion in the long jump, Claire Poliquin in the high jump, and the 4 x 800 meter relay team (Kristen Vidlak, Janeen Shepard, Amanda Virgets, and Heather Jovanelli) were best at the six-state event as well. Posing for a group photo after the meet were, front row, l-r, Shira Panelli, Amelia Williams, Janeen Shepard, Sadie Shaffer, Asst. Coach Rolland Ranson, and Coach Jim Ballinger. Second row, l-r, Stephanie McCusker, Annie Howley, Suzanne Hussey, Sylvia Scaldaferrri, Amanda Virgets, Katie Page, and Nicole Pelletier. Third row, l-r, Kathryn Souviney, Kristen Vidlak, Heather Jovanelli, Sarah Dwyer, Asst. Coach Mark Lech, and Viktoriya Rybalko.

AMERICA EAST

Formation of the North Athletic Conference, later re-named America East, in the late 1980s offered Maine a new conference championship meet on its annual schedule. Charter members were Boston and Northeastern Universities and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont. The U. of Delaware became a member in 1992, the U. of Hartford in 1994, and Towson U. in 1996. Drexel U. became a member in 1999, but discontinued its program after one season. The U. of Delaware and Towson U. resigned in 2002.

Binghamton, Albany, and Stony Brook Universities became members in 2002. The U. of Maryland at Baltimore County became a member in 2004. Northeastern U. resigned following the 2005 season.

Maine's track and field program came in for some fine recognition in the spring of 1999 when Black Bear track athletes were recipients of the University's highest honor for student-athletes . . . the Dean Smith Award. Awarded only twice annually, it recognizes the top male and female athletes at the University and is based on both academic and athletic achievement. The awards are underwritten by the "M" Club. Joe Moody (second from left) and Vanessa McGowan were the 1999 recipients. Making the presentations were "M" Club officers Gerry Ellis (left), and Keith Mahaney (right). Ellis, a UM administrator, was one of the top cross country and track athletes at the University in the mid 1960s, while Mahaney was an outstanding basketball player a decade earlier.
