1975 BLACK BEARS

Coach Paul Stoyell's '75 team finished just below .500 (5-7), but pulled off the biggest upset of the year in New England when the Bears defeated Yankee Conference champion Vermont in the final game of the season. The Maine lineup included Ted Woodbrey, a two-line all-New England selection and one of the top goal scorers in UM history. Front Row, left to right: Jamie Parker, Jeff Stevens, Chuck Stair, Joey Costa, Co-Capts. Bill Leithiser and Mike Barden, Dane Hoskin, Brian Peterson, Peter Halligan, and Craig Conover. Back Row, left to right: Asst. Coach Mike Berticelli (who eventually became head coach at Notre Dame), Rusty Keene, Ted Woodbrey, Andy Holt, Paul Richards, Dave Jeffrey, Steve Mann, Mark Mogensen, Scott Smith, Joe Malicky, Nick Gaudioso, Phil Torsney, Trainer Peter Henderson, and Coach Stoyell.

AMERICA EAST

Maine soccer teams, beginning in 1988, found a new conference home with the establishment of the North Atlantic Conference, later re-named America East. Charter members were Boston and Northeastern Universities and the Universities of Hartford, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. The University of Delaware and Drexel University became members in 1991. Hofstra and Towson Universities became members in 1995.

Drexel, Hofstra, and Towson Universities and the University of Delaware resigned following the 2001 season. The Universities of Albany and Stony Brook became members in 2001. Binghamton University became a member in 2002. The University of Maryland at Baltimore County became a member in 2003.

Northeastern University resigned following the 2004 season.

Final standings for each season since 1988, as well as for the conference's post-season tournament, first held in 1989, are listed below.

YANKEE CONFERENCE

Maine teams competed in the Yankee Conference for 15 seasons between 1965 and 1979. Charter members were the Universities of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Boston University joined the conference in 1972. The league disbanded after the 1979 season. Standings for each of the 15 years of conference play are listed below.

1967 BLACK BEARS

UM grad Bill Livesey served as Maine's soccer coach for the '66 and '67 seasons before going on to an outstanding career with the New York Yankee's organization. His '67 team, above, finished below .500 (4-6-1), but posted the first two wins over Division 1 rivals (*UNH and URI) in the young history of the Maine soccer program. Front Row, left to right: Geoffrey Mwinanyambe, Alan Downing, Swatulani Munhali, Greg Papasodora, Bob Hatch, and Stephen Wright. Second Row, left to right: Frank Stewart, Larry Reed, Tom Miller, Capt. Walter Olson, Darryl Calkins, Ted Landry, and Geoffrey Titherington. Back Row, left to right: Mgr. John Beckett, Ken Gailey, Edward Ainsworth, George Pratt, James Drummond, Ionnis Karmokolias, Peter Chase, Ahmed Hamid, Harrie Price, Francis Osielo, Harry Dame, Doug Hoy, Gerry Balzano, and Coach Livesey.

1988 BLACK BEAR BOSSES

Head Coach Jim Dyer, center, headed a most able coaching staff in 1988. He is flanked by Jeff Spring (left) and Scott Atherley (right). Spring, a goalie, is the only soccer player in UM history to have his number retired. Maine posted a winning record in all four of his varsity seasons (1983-87) and he established an all-time UM record of 27 shutouts during that span. Atherley, also an outstanding player for Maine between 1984 and 1987, succeeded Dyer as head coach in 1993 and became coach of the UM women's team in 2000.
