MAINE'S GREATEST TEAM

The 1977-78 Black Bears could rightfully make a claim that they were the strongest unit in UM men's swimming history. They posted a 9-2 record in dual meets, won the Yankee Conference championship with an undefeated league record, and literally swamped the opposition in the New England Championships, winning by 336.5 points (675 to 338.5) over the second place team. Incredibly, Maine swimmers finished first in 15 events with Don Winant establishing three new New England records and Jim Smoragiewicz posting two new NE records. It was the most one-sided meet in the history of the New England association. Doug Burnham, Kevin Riley, John Judge, Peter Ferragher, Jim LaRochelle, Ron Pospisil, Bob Stedman, Lance Graham, Winant and Smoragiewicz all were first team, all-Yankee Conference. Front row, l-r, Rich Reed, Tom Sarson, Don Winant, Peter Farragher, Capt. Jim Ferragher, Scott Semie, Bob Greeley, and Jamie LaRochelle. Second row, l-r, Kevin Riley, Eric McCarthy, Lance Graham, Greg Brett, Bruce Eppinger, Rich Nagel, Rolf Olsen, Jim Chiudioni, Ed Colbert, and Rich Riker. Back row, l-r, Coach Alan Switzer, Bob Stedman, Doug Burnham, Jim Smoragiewicz, Steve Dunwoody, Bob Marshall, Ron Pospisil, John Judge, Keith Falconer, and Dana Hodges. Absent, Diving Coach Rich Miller, Asst. Coach Jeff Wren, and Brian Seaward.

CATCH THE WAVE

Coach Wren greets a throng of friends and local media after completing his 65-mile swim down the Penobscot River. His feat generated both funds and attention for Maine swim teams and the Maine Swimming and Diving Endowment. He made his unique contribution in the summer of 1993.

CATCH THE WAVE

Reduced administrative support for UM swim teams in the early 1990s, and again in 2002, caused alumni, parents, students and friends to form the Maine Swimming and Diving Endowment. Bangor Attorney Garth Chandler spearheaded the drive for funds with UM Alumni Steve and Tabitha King making major contributions. Other significant donors included Norm Palmer, Doug Springer, Kerry Woodbury, Robbie MacDonald, Francis Fox, Sally Baughman, and Kendall Akerley. The Endowment is managed by the UM Foundation and interested parties may contribute by contacting the Foundation office at Two Alumni Place, Orono, 04469-5792 or by Calling 1-800-982-8503. A dramatic contribution was made by Coach Jeff Wren who collected pledges and swam 65 miles of the Penobscot River to support the Endowment.

AMERICA EAST

Creation of the North Atlantic Conference, later re-named America East, gave Maine swimmers a new conference championship to be vied for on an annual basis. Charter members were Boston and Northeastern Universities and the Universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. The U. of Delaware and Drexel U. became members in 1991. Towson U. became a member in 1995.

Northeastern U. discontinued men's swimming in 1996. The U. of New Hampshire discontinued men's swimming in 2006.

The University of Delaware and Drexel and Towson Universities resigned in 2001. Binghamton and Stony Brook Universities became members in 2001. The University of Maryland at Baltimore County became a member in 2003. The U. of Vermont discontinued men's swimming in 2004.

Shown here are scores of the annual championship meet.

EASTERN SEABOARD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Between 1978-79 and 1982-83 Maine competed in the annual Eastern Seaboard Swimming and Diving Championships. Maine's team finishes were: 1978-79, eighth; 1979-80, ninth; 1980-81, eighth; 1981-82, eleventh, and 1982-83, twelfth. Top individual performances came at the 1982-83 meet when Kevin Wright finished second in both the one meter and three meter diving events.

1992-93 MAINE SWIMMERS

Maine's men's swim team found victories hard to come by in the winter of 1992-93, but pushed their opponents in every meet. Tom Hines proved to be the best diver in America East, winning both the one meter and three meter events in the league championship meet. Front row, l-r, Keith Paquet, Nick Voikos, Jeff Small, Jason Street, Capt. Aaron Rog, Todd Mercer, Royal Fraser, Nick Jecko, and Dan Lundin. Second row, l-r, Josh Caron, Shawn Leonard, Rob Dudley, Dave White, Jason Lyon, Sean MacMillen, Ralph Sawyer, Ben Springer, Keith Nickels, and Coach Jeff Wren. Back row, l-r, Max Maximov, Tim LeCrone, Todd Springer, Derek Marshall, Shawn Talon, Brian Livingston, James Hutchinson, Tom Hines, and Diving Coach Lance Graham.

Maine's men's swimming teams competed annually in the New England Swimming and Diving Championships for six seasons between 1973 and 1978 and again between 1990 and 1992. Top team performances and individual champions were as follows:

PIONEERS

The first men's swimming team to represent the University emerged in the winter of 1972-73. It also was the first team coached by Alan Switzer, hired by Athletic Director Hal Westerman to establish the program and manage operations at the new Stanley Wallace Pool. Front row, l-r, Mgr. Peggy Emery, Joe Aloisio, Chris Glab, Tim Babcock, Tom Clark, Terry Rowbotham, Chuck Trainer, and Eric Spear. Back row, l-r, Mgr. Harold Farkus, Capt. Cliff Anderson, Dave Boulter, Mike Bernard, Tom MacDonald, Lee Sumner, Robby MacDonald, Dave McCallum, and Ken Branch.

YANKEE CONFERENCE

The Yankee Conference sponsored championship competition in men's swimming for eight years between 1972 and 1980. Charter members were the Universities of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Boston University became a conference member in 1978. The conference folded in 1980.

The 1972-73 champion was based on points scored by each team in a championship meet involving all teams. This meet was held only one year. During the next five seasons, a point system was established in which teams received 20 points for each dual meet victory and 30 points for each position relative to other conference members at the annual New England Swimming and Diving Championship Meet. In the final two seasons of YC championship competition, the standings were based on the results of dual meets. Final standings are shown below.

END OF AN ERA

The conclusion of the 1989–90 season marked the end of a remarkable coaching career at the University of Maine. Alan Switzer, only coach of the men's team since the program's birth in 1972, retired at season's end and moved to New Hampshire. In 18 seasons, his teams compiled a record of 137 wins against 62 losses (.688) in dual meets, won two New England championships and five Yankee Conference titles. Members of his final team were, front, l-r, Brad Burnham, Robert Greene, Steve Rolfe, Capt. Tom Sawyer, Russell Verby, Bob Leonard, and Walter Sweeney. Back row, l-r, Peter Small, Nick Voikos, Aaron Rog, Jason Street, William Stone, Jeff Lynn, Steve Campbell, Sean Conroy, Tom Hines, Jon Moody and Scott Badger.

STANLEY WALLACE POOL

Members of Maine swimming teams not only have enjoyed the presence of outstanding coaches over the years, but have been able to swim in an exceptional facility. Constructed under the watchful eye of Athletic Director Hal Westerman in the early 1970s, the pool measures 25 yards by 25 meters, has eight competitive lanes, a 25 x 60 foot diving area, gold medal lane lines, a Colorado automatic timing system and scoreboard, a 22 x 12 foot record board, lightning provided by 100 footcandles, 550 balcony seats, 650 deck seats, one and three meter diving boards, pace clocks, and digital video equipment.

RECOGNITION FROM THE STATE OF MAINE

State Senator Dana Devoe (1956 UM grad) presents an official proclamation from the State of Maine to Capt. Jim Ferragher and Coach Alan Switzer in recognition of the team's winning of the New England championship in 1978. It was the second New England crown in three seasons for the Black Bears.

1975-76 — NEW ENGLAND AND YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

In only the fourth season of existence, Maine's men's swimming team reached a pinnacle of success in the 1975-76 season by winning both the Yankee Conference and New England championships. It began a reign of success that included two additional New England titles and four more Yankee Conference crowns. Front, l-r, Bill Houston, John Wescott, Jay Donovan, Brian Seaward, Terry Rowbotham, Capt. Tom MacDonald, Jim Ferragher, Allan Hook, Bill Whatley, Rolf Olsen, and Roy Warren. Back row, l-r, Ritchie Palmer, Paul Miles, Bryan Peters, Kevin Reader, Ron Pospisil, Bob Stedman, Tom Clark, Tim Babcock, Chris Glab, Jerry Fiske, Jim Smoragiewicz, and Kevin Bucy. Absent, Coach Alan Switzer, Asst. Coach Jeff Wren, Diving Coach Rich Miller and Mike Schiler.

1981-82 — ANOTHER GOOD SEASON

A GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION

Maine alumni have donated on a great many occasions to University athletic programs. A generous gift from the Class of 1933 provided Wallace Pool with this expensive and critically important scoreboard, judging and timing system which instantly calculates and displays the running times of racing swimmers in eight lane.
