1941 BLACK BEARS — STATE AND NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

STATE AND YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Maine netmen compiled a terrific record in the spring of 1951, winning both the State Series and Yankee Conference championships. Coach George "Bill" Small's team also posted a sizzling 11-3 record in dual matches and Bill Bird and Paul Peterson were State Series doubles champions. Front Row, left to right: Bill Bird, Coach Small, John Domenico, and Don Holdsworth. Second Row, left to right: Galen Leathers, Richard True, Paul Peterson, Capt. Ben Blanchard, Bob LePage, and Al Potter.

1953 MAINE NETMEN

Coach Garland Russell's '53 UM team struggled in dual matches, but came on strong at the end of the season to finish second in the Yankee Conference. Left to right: Coach Russell, Art Traub, Gene Drolet, Brooks Whitehouse (who would win the Yankee Conference singles championship in 1955), Ken Barnard, Capt. Ernie Sutton, John Bridge (a major contributor to the construction of many new University courts in the 1980s), Preston Hall, Irvin Pendleton, and Robin Upton.

1959 MAINE NETMEN

Under first year coach Brian McCall, better known as one of the top basketball coaches in UM history, the 1959 Maine netmen posted a 5-5 record including a win over New England power Connecticut. It was Maine's first winning record in eight seasons. Bob Chase and Carl Edler were Maine State Series doubles champions. Left to right: Gary Severson, Ernie Marshall, Bob Sterritt, Coach McCall, Bob Chase, John Mitchell, Capt. Carl Edler, and Bob White. Absent: David Khoury.

AMERICA EAST

Maine competed in the America East annual men's championship tournament from the initial event in the fall of 1988 until the fall of 1990. No Maine players earned all-conference honors. The tournament, during Maine's three years of participation, consisted of a team vs. team format with four singles and one doubles match determining the outcome of each contest. Results of Maine's matches were as follows:

1988 (1-2)		1989 (0-2)		1990 (0-2)
0 Vermont	5	0 Boston U.	5	0 Northeastern	5
3 Siena	2	1 Northeastern	4	1 New Hampshire	4

MAINE STATE SERIES

Members of the Maine Intercollegiate Athletic Association, more popularly known as the Maine State Series, competed for individual and team championships beginning as far back as 1890 and continuing through 1974. Members were Bates, Bowdoin and Colby Colleges and the U. of Maine. Maine players were entrants during the University's first phase of tennis sponsorship (1901-14) and again between 1935 and 1974, the final year of State Series competition. Prior to the spring of 1955, the team title was based on the results of a one or two-day tournament, the length of which depended upon the number entries. From 1955 to 1974, the annual tournament continued to determine individual champions; however, the team title was determined on the basis of double round robin play between the four member teams.

Names of championship teams, as determined by results of a single annual tournament between 1901 and 1914, and 1935 and 1954 (years in which Maine sponsored a varsity team) are listed here. Tournaments were cancelled in 1906, 1907, 1940, 1944, and 1945.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

1966 BLACK BEAR NETMEN

Tom Reynolds, far left, coached Maine's tennis team for one season, 1966, before moving on to the University of Maine at Farmington where he gained fame as one of the country's top ski coaches. Joining him for the team photo were, left to right: Richard Schwartz, Dave Fenderson, Collin Robinson, Roger Ginn, Jeff Kestenbaum, John Corey, Gordon Erickson, Capt. Bruce Hauck, and Emil Swift.

YANKEE CONFERENCE

The Yankee Conference instituted championship play in men's tennis in 1948. The annual competition continued until the conclusion of the 1979 season. Charter members were the Universities of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Holy Cross was a conference member in one year only, 1972. Boston U. became a member in 1976. The tournament was cancelled due to rain in 1951, 1952, 1961, and 1967. MAINE was declared conference champion in 1951 on the basis of dual matches; no champion was declared in 1952, 1961, and 1967.
